The Salt Lake Temple Scott D. Marianno, Assistant Academic Vice President Reid L. Neilson, 2025-08-08 Marianno and Neilson share the history of the temple located at the center of the headquarters for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah, from the time church president Brigham Young declared its precise spot in 1847 to the twenty-first century. Beyond its forty years of construction, readers will learn how the temple shaped and influenced the development of the church into a global faith and its contemporary significance as an icon and symbol for Latter-day Saints.

Developing a Strategy for Missions (Encountering Mission) J. D. Payne, John Mark Terry, 2013-09-15 In this addition to the highly acclaimed Encountering Mission series, two leading missionary scholars offer an up-to-date discussion of missionary strategy that is designed for a global audience. The authors focus on the biblical, missiological, historical, cultural, and practical issues that inform and guide the development of an effective missions strategy. The book includes all the features that have made other series volumes useful classroom tools, such as figures, sidebars, and case studies. Students of global or domestic mission work and mission practitioners will value this new resource. Home and Foreign Missions Topics Fall 2013 Kimberly Freeman, 2013-08-01 The Home and Foreign Mission Topic challenges the believer to step outside of the normalcy of their everyday lives and do something to help those who are in need. Doing the Word T. Laine Scales, Melody Maxwell, 2024-01-12 In the pantheon of publications related to women's educational history, there is little research concerning women's education in the context of the Baptist church. In Doing the Word, Southern Baptists Carver School of Church Social Work and Its Predecessors, 1907-1997, T. Laine Scales and Melody Maxwell provide a complete history of this unique institution. By exploring the dynamic evolution of women's education through the lens of the women's training program for missions and social work at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, the authors show how the institution both expanded women's education and leadership and also came into tension with changes in the Southern Baptist Convention, ultimately resulting in its closing in 1997. A touchstone for women's studies and church history alike, Doing the Word reopens a lost chapter in the evolution of women's leadership during the twentieth century, a tumultuous period in which the Carver School, under significant pressure to reverse course, sought to expand the roles of women in leading the church. State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs Appropriations for 2013: Dept. of State fiscal year 2013 budget justification United States Congress. Turkey, the Arab Spring and Beyond Bulent Aras, Fuat Keyman, 2018-02-02 It has been almost five years now since a new collective consciousness of Arab masses transformed the political landscape of the Middle East and North Africa. In just a short period of time the people of the Arab world protested against their rulers putting an end to long time authoritarian leaders in Tunisia, Egypt, Libya and Yemen while bringing others to the eve of collapse. Although the uprisings were initially successful, the people's strong will to see honour, dignity, rights and good governance realized within their respective countries was fiercely combated by the ruling strata of these states and their strategies to ensure authoritarian survival. The changing political landscape and the dynamic processes of the Arab Spring have caught the attention of academics as well. There is a blossoming literature being written on the Arab Spring focusing on social protests, authoritarian resilience and learning, opposition strategies, the rise of non-state actors, state failure, foreign policy and new the geopolitical landscape. Therefore, with the desire to contribute to this literature, this edited volume aims to address the changing political atmosphere and the challenges of the emerging geopolitical order, particularly focusing on Turkish foreign policy and its response to the Arab Spring. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Balkan and Near Eastern Studies. Home and Foreign Mission Topics Spring 2015 (Mar-May) Kimberly Wesley Freeman, Church Of God In Christ Publishing House, 2015-03-01 Isolationism Charles Kupchan, 2020 This is the first book to examine the full arc of American isolationism from the founding era through the Trump presidency. Charles Kupchan tells the fascinating story of why isolationism dominated US statecraft for so long, uncovers isolationism's enduring connection to American exceptionalism and explains why an aversion to foreign entanglement is making a comeback. This fresh account of American history sheds revealing light on not only the nation's past but also where US grand strategy is headed and how the nation can find the middle ground between isolationism and strategic overreach. Congressional Record United States Congress, 1967 Restraint Barry R. Posen, 2014-06-03 The United States Barry R. Posen argues in Restraint has grown incapable of moderating its ambitions in international politics. Since the collapse of Soviet power it has pursued a grand strategy that he calls liberal hegemony, one that Posen sees as unnecessary, counterproductive, costly and wasteful. Written for policymakers and observers alike, Restraint explains precisely why this grand strategy works poorly and then provides a carefully designed alternative grand strategy and an associated military strategy and force structure. In contrast to the failures and unexpected problems that have stemmed from America's consistent overreaching, Posen makes an urgent argument for restraint in the future use of US military strength. After setting out the political implications of restraint as a guiding principle, Posen sketches the appropriate military forces and posture that would support such a strategy. He works with a deliberately constrained notion of grand strategy and even more important of national security, which he defines as including sovereignty, territorial integrity, power position and safety. His alternative for military strategy, which Posen calls
