Handling The Truth II Handling The Truth II:

Handling the Truth Beth Kephart, 2013-08-06 In the tradition of Anne Lamott's Bird by Bird a critically acclaimed National Book Award finalist shares inspiration and practical advice for writing a memoir Writing memoir is a deeply personal and consequential undertaking As the acclaimed author of five memoirs spanning significant turning points in her life Beth Kephart has been both blessed and bruised by the genre In Handling the Truth she thinks out loud about the form on how it gets made on what it means to make it on the searing language of truth on the thin line between remembering and imagining and finally on the rights of memoirists Drawing on proven writing lessons and classic examples on the work of her students and on her own memories of weather landscape color and love Kephart probes the wrenching and essential questions that lie at the heart of memoir A beautifully written work in its own right Handling the Truth is Kephart's memoir writing guide for those who read or seek to write the truth

Correctly Handling the Word of Truth Mees te Velde, Gerhard H. Visscher, 2014-10-24 How should the Word of God be interpreted and applied today Does our modern culture affect how we read the Bible Can certain passages be interpreted in different contexts and in different ways all the while acknowledging that God speaks with a clear and consistent voice These are the enduring challenges of hermeneutics In this volume no less than sixteen Reformed scholars from four different countries join together to tackle the hard questions that often arise when we busy ourselves with the weighty responsibility of interpreting Holy Scripture As iron sharpens iron so also these Reformed scholars challenge each other and their readers to ask not only how hermeneutics can be done but ultimately how it should be done so that God's Word of Truth may be handled correctly 2 Tim 2 15

Between Truth and Falsity: Liberal Education and the Arts of Discernment Karim Dharamsi,David Ohreen,2021-04-06 It seems we are awash in information From the moment we wake until we turn over our phones at night we are bombarded with images and messages news and information from a confounding number of sources But as the amount of information available to us increases ever more rapidly its quality and reliability seem less credible Russian troll bots 4chan Breitbart and

Rebel Media challenge our credulity but they do so by mimicking aesthetic registers consumers expect of traditional media outlets Moreover traditional news sources both privately owned and public broadcasters already weakened by eroding revenue cuts to budgets and shifting demographics are under sustained attack from those who wish to damage their ability to hold powerful people to account Instead of a multi perspectival approach which seeks to report to the public the many ways to address a particular issue taking the reporter s role as neutral with regard to outcome fake or ideologically driven news sources compete for audience attention and faithfulness often using emotion to rally people toward a certain political cause or issue Academics meanwhile have their work attacked and undermined by people or groups seeking to advance political or economic interests They are told they too are political actors one more voice in a messy public arena instead of a font of reliable information and knowledge While academics continue to believe that their work at least in part enhances our understanding of the world and informs debate how do we know that their conclusions are indeed more reliable than their critics in the post truth era Between Truth and Falsity Liberal Education and the Arts of Discernment will aid academics and students seeking to better grasp the value of liberal education within this post truth era It seeks to advance pedagogical ideas in order to fight factual erosion and reinforce intellectual capacities that are able to critically assess the chaos of information enveloping all segments of society This volume will therefore be of particular interest to academics and university educators working in higher education graduate students theorizing the nature of media and the role of higher education undergraduates studying liberal education and the nature of the university and those thinking about liberal education
