Being Who You Are On LinkedIn Desmond Stears, 2021-08-11 LinkedIn is the top online site for professional social and career networking. The site functions as an online directory of individual professionals and organizations and facilitates the process of professional networking without having to leave your office. While individuals use LinkedIn for professional networking, connecting and job searching, companies use it for recruiting and for sharing company information with prospective employees. In this book, I will show you how you can create an irresistible LinkedIn profile that almost forces your ideal clients and potential bosses to click. I will also show you how I got my own career coaching clients by participating in LinkedIn groups. Think writing doesn't pay off. I also have a section on how you can use LinkedIn Pulse to get featured in your industry and area of expertise so that you can get free traffic and more clients. This is not a technical book; this is a guide on how I got my first job and how I got my clients via LinkedIn and how you can do it too. LinkedIn is one of the most misunderstood social media networks out there, but if you truly understand how to utilize it, you're going to be raking in the clients and the cash.
