Cointegration of International Stock Market Indices Mr.Ray Yeu-Tien Chou,Mr.Victor Ng,Lynn K. Pi,1994-08-01 In this paper we derive evidence on the integration of international stock markets from the cointegration properties of international stock market prices Using the multivariate cointegration test of Johansen we find that the set of six country stock price indices including that of the United States Canada the United Kingdom France Germany and Japan are cointegrated The results suggest that there are long run equilibrium relationships among the stock market prices Subsample and subgroup analyses also indicate that the cointegration relationships have become stronger over time This is consistent with greater stock market integration amid the increasing liberalization and globalization of capital markets
