Government Finance In Developing Countries Government Finance In Developing Countries:

Restructuring Local Government Finance in Developing Countries Roy W. Bahl, Paul J. Smoke, 2003-01-01

Examining cutting edge issues of international relevance in the ongoing redesign of the South African local government fiscal system the contributors to this volume analyze the major changes that have taken place since the demise of apartheid The 1996 Constitution and subsequent legislation dramatically redefined the public sector mandating the development of democratic local governments empowered to provide a wide variety of key public services However the definition and implementation of new local functions and the supporting democratic decision making and managerial capabilities are emerging more slowly than expected Fiscal Decentralization and Local Finance in Developing Countries Roy

Bahl, Richard M. Bird, 2018-03-30 This book draws on experiences in developing countries to bridge the gap between the conventional textbook treatment of fiscal decentralization and the actual practice of subnational government finance The extensive literature about the theory and practice is surveyed and longstanding problems and new questions are addressed It focuses on the key choices that must be made in decentralizing on how economic and political factors shape the choices that countries make and on how by paying more attention to the need for a more comprehensive approach and the critical connections between different components of decentralization reform everyone involved might get more for their money

Public Finance in Underdeveloped Countries Alan Richmond Prest, 1972

Local Government Financial Reform in Developing Countries J. Boex, J. Martinez-Vazquez, 2006-07-07 This book analyzes recent local government finance reforms in Tanzania including the introduction of a formula based system of intergovernmental grants Due to the scope and speed of Tanzania's local government finance reforms the country is becoming one of the best practice examples of fiscal decentralization reform in Africa Public Finance in Developing Countries Vito Tanzi, 1991 This lively and accessible book discusses the real world fiscal issues in developing countries within a realistic macroeconomic and social framework It represents the best synthesis currently available of the link between public finance and macroeconomics in developing countries with emphasis on positive rather than normative aspects The first part of the book emphasizes the reasons why normatively prescribed policy objectives are often not achieved The second part includes various chapters that show the close link that exists between developments in the public finances and in the macroeconomic situation of these countries The impact on inflation and of the real exchange rate on tax revenue is highlighted The third part discusses various aspects of taxation and the requirements for successful tax reform Government Finance Statistics International Monetary Fund.

Statistics Dept., 2011-09-14 The Government Finance Statistics Compilation Guide for Developing Countries represents a new approach by the IMF's Statistics Department STA to assist developing countries to compile government finance statistics GFS in accordance with the guidelines of the Government Finance Statistics Manual 2001 GFSM 2001 The Guide specifically addresses issues relevant to developing countries The Guide is based on our experience over many years of technical assistance and training to member countries addressing common problems they face and answering questions that often arise Examples figures and tables are used to facilitate the reader s understanding of the topics discussed Public Sector Economics for Developing Countries Michael Howard,2001 A discussion of the impact of government revenues and expenditures on economic activity with special reference to developing countries Michael Howard raises theoretical and empirical issues relating to the role of the public sector in economic development World Development Indicators 2008 World Bank,2008-04-11 Looking for accurate up to date data on development issues World Development Indicators is the World Bank s premier annual compilation of data about development This indispensable statistical reference allows you to consult over 900 indicators for some 150 economies and 14 country groups in more than 80 tables It provides a current overview of the most recent data available as well as important regional data and income group analysis in six thematic sections World View People Environment Economy States and Markets and Global Links Property Tax Reform in Developing Countries Jay K. Rosengard,2012-12-06 Property Tax Reform in Developing Countries provides a conceptual framework for property tax reform with the intention of making the most compelling argument possible to persuade the reader as to its validity The text claims that a model for property tax reform in developing countries is derived from a theoretical distillation of empirical experience The primary objective of this study is to establish through logic theory and observation what constitutes a good property tax system for whom and under what conditions why such a system works and how inferior systems can be upgraded to approximate well functioning systems Property Tax Reform in Developing Countries develops its examination in three stages First a conceptual framework is presented for the formulation implementation and evaluation of property tax reform in developing countries Second attempts to reform property taxation in four developing countries are examined in detail Finally the results of the reform efforts described in the four case studies are evaluated and guidelines for reform are offered The study concludes with specific recommendations for reforming property tax systems in developing countries based on the conceptual framework and synthesizing lessons of the case studies Public Finance in Under-developed Countries Ram Niranjana Tripathy,1978 Fiscal Policy in Open Developing Economies Mr.Vito Tanzi,1990-06-15 Based on papers presented at the 44th Congress of the international Institute of Public Finance this book edited by Vito Tanzi deals with public finance and macroeconomic policy in open developing economies with case studies of Chile Mexico Turkey Korea and the Arab oil exporting countries Local Government Finance in Developing Countries Paul J. Smoke,1994 Arguing that local governments could be made more effective in developing countries the author explores the issues involved in designing and implementing appropriate intergovernmental systems for financing and providing local public services The core of the book traces the history of local authorities in Kenya An analysis of the problems of financing local government is followed by a set of practical recommendations for reform which has practical implications for other developing countries Urban Health in Developing Countries Marcel Tanner,2014-04-23 The impact of urbanization on the health of citizens in developing countries has received increasing attention recently This book addresses the problems in an integrated way looking in detail at both the problems themselves and the action and research necessary to alleviate them It includes contributions from leading practitioners and advisors to many of the main international agencies and presents the latest thinking of those institutions It also presents recent information on research findings the management and financing of urban health services and trends in urban health policy Case studies examine major initiatives in cities as diverse as Santiago Dar es Salaam Dhaka Kampala and Bombay Urban Public Finance in Developing Countries Roy W. Decentralizing Infrastructure Antonio Estache, 1995 World Bank Discussion Paper No 286 This report was commissioned as part of a project on the effectiveness of credit policies in East Asian countries In the Republic of Korea the government has played a pervasive role in promoting industrialization and economic development The report documents the use of directed credit programs and highlights what made government intervention effective its close consultation with industry the existence of a competitive business environment and a strong monitoring and evaluation system The report notes the risk sharing arrangements developed by Korean policymakers and the flexible adaptation of directed credit programs to the changing needs of the Korean economy The authors also emphasize the long term costs of reliance on directed credit programs and the measures taken in recent years to redirect the programs objectives and redress the imbalances that have arisen along Korea's path to economic development Financing Health Services in Developing Countries John S. Akin, Nancy Birdsall, David M. De Ferranti, 1987-01-01 This report discusses several different approaches that support reforming health care services in developing countries For some time now health care services have been supported by government funds As demands for improving health care services continue to increase additional demands will be placed on governments to respond This however will not be easy Slow economic growth and record budget deficits in the 1980 s have forced reductions in public spending Alternative approaches to finance health care services are needed Such possible changes could involve decentralization of federal government involvement the promotion of nongovernment involvement the imposition of user fees and establishing health insurance Finally the role of the Bank in pursuing new financing strategies is discussed Macroeconomic Theory - 14Th Edn M C Vaish,2010 A complete textbook for UG and PG students of economics commerce and business management it provides an integrated view of macroeconomics from a global perspective as well as from Indian with special emphasis on Indian monetary policy Divided into 4 parts Introductory Macroeconomic accounting 3 Macroeconomic theory 4 Money interest and prices 5 Policy Foreign exchange and banking 6 Trade cycle theories and economic growth World Development Indicators [computer File] World Bank,2004
