Fixed White Light Suellen Wedmore,2022-09-01 In the last half of the nineteenth century more than one hundred women worked as primary keepers of American lighthouses Twice as many were assistant keepers and many more worked without pay or recognition in their husband's or their father's names this at a time when it was widely believed that the ideal woman was submissive and homebound The poems in A Fixed White Light enter the lives of six of these courageous and mostly forgotten women giving readers the opportunity to experience their heroism as well as their trials in a time when they were often met with skepticism and discrimination

Women of the Lights Candace Fleming,1996 Chronicles the lives of women who lived and worked in lighthouses braving seas and storms rescuing people from icy waters and lovingly caring for their lights

Guiding Lights Shona Riddell,2020-10-01 Women have a long history of keeping the lights burning from tending ancient altar flames or bonfires to modern day lighthouse keeping Yet most of their stories are little known Guiding Lights includes true stories from around the world chronicling the lives of the extraordinary women who mind the world's storm battered towers From Hannah Sutton and her partner Grant the two caretakers living alone on Tasmania's wild Maatsuyker Island to Karen Zacharuk the keeper in charge of Cape Beale on Canada's Vancouver Island where bears, cougars and wolves roam the lives of lighthouse women are not for the faint of heart. Stunning photographs from throughout history accompany accounts of the dramatic torching of Puysegur Point, one of NZ's most inhospitable lighthouses, haunted lighthouses in across the US and their tragic tales, lighthouse accidents and emergencies around the world and two of the world's most legendary lighthouse women, Ida Lewis, US and Grace Darling, UK, who risked their lives to save others. The book also explores our dual perception of lighthouses: are they comforting and romantic beacons symbolizing hope and trust, or storm-lashed and forbidding towers with echoes of lonely mad keepers? Whatever our perception, stories of women's courage and dedication in minding the lights then and now continue to capture our imagination and inspire.
