52 Thinking on Screen Thomas E. Wartenberg,2007-10-31 Thinking on Screen Film as Philosophy is an accessible and thought provoking examination of the way films raise and explore complex philosophical ideas Written in a clear and engaging style Thomas Wartenberg examines films ability to discuss and even criticize ideas that have intrigued and puzzled philosophers over the centuries such as the nature of personhood the basis of morality and epistemological skepticism Beginning with a demonstration of how specific forms of philosophical discourse are presented cinematically Wartenberg moves on to offer a systematic account of the ways in which specific films undertake the task of philosophy Focusing on the films The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance Modern Times The Matrix Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind The Third Man The Flicker and Empire Wartenberg shows how these films express meaningful and pertinent philosophical ideas This book is essential reading for students of philosophy with an interest in film aesthetics and film theory It will also be of interest to film enthusiasts intrigued by the philosophical implications of film On Being in the Middle W. J. de Kock,2024-04-11 In our world there s a lack of clear middle ground It s a divided place with political affiliations drawing lines between the left and the right Being in the middle is challenging our allegiances are pulled in different directions making it isolating and overwhelming to navigate life s complexities But we live from the middle between birth and death between events important dates and between stability and change In this uncertain space we face existential questions about identity the meaning of life our purpose and our place in the world This is the domain of theology Traditionally theology attempts to answer these questions from the top down declaring dogmas as absolute truths to remove the uncertainties However unexamined answers can become oppressive stifling vitality and can even become tyrannical answers of the left or the right This book suggests a different approach doing theology from the inside out and from the bottom up starting with sacred questions instead of rehearsed answers We don t expect that the answers we come to will be final However we expect to find God in the middle Theology is the practice of the presence of God where we integrate our love and knowledge of God to live wisely in a divided world Black Space Adilifu Nama,2010-01-01 Winner Rollins Book Award Southwest Texas Popular Culture Association American Culture Association 2008 Science fiction film offers its viewers many pleasures not least of which is the possibility of imagining other worlds in which very different forms of society exist Not surprisingly however these alternative worlds often become spaces in which filmmakers and film audiences can explore issues of concern in our own society Through an analysis of over thirty canonic science fiction SF films including Logan s Run Star Wars Blade Runner Back to the Future

Gattaca and Minority Report Black Space offers a thorough going investigation of how SF film since the 1950s has dealt with the issue of race and specifically with the representation of blackness Setting his study against the backdrop of America s ongoing racial struggles and complex socioeconomic histories Adilifu Nama pursues a number of themes in Black Space They include the structured absence token presence of blacks in SF film racial contamination and racial paranoia the traumatized black body as the ultimate signifier of difference alienness and otherness the use of class and economic issues to subsume race as an issue the racially subversive pleasures and allegories encoded in some mainstream SF films and the ways in which independent and extra filmic productions are subverting the SF genre of Hollywood filmmaking The first book length study of African American representation in science fiction film Black Space demonstrates that SF cinema has become an important field of racial analysis a site where definitions of race can be contested and post civil rights race relations re imagined

The End All Around Us John Walliss, Kenneth G. C. Newport, 2014-12-05 The Apocalypse or end times are a recurrent theme within contemporary popular culture The End All Around Us presents a wide ranging exploration of the influence of the apocalypse within art literature music and film The essays draw on representations of the apocalypse in heavy metal music science fiction disaster movies and anime The book examines key apocalyptic texts focusing on their relevance to today It will be invaluable to all those interested in the religious and cultural impact of apocalyptic thought Multicultural Encounters S. Sharma, 2006-08-18 This book confronts the challenge of difference for rethinking everyday multiculturalism It proposes both a theory and practice of a critical pedagogy of popular culture through an analysis of contemporary media and film For students and scholars committed to a critical practice for transforming the politics of representation and otherness

Virtual Reality: The Last Human Narrative? Thorsten Botz-Bornstein, 2015-07-14 Is virtual reality the latest grand narrative that humanity has produced Our civilization is determined by a shift from an original event to a virtual narrative This concerns not only virtual reality but also psychoanalysis gene technology and globalization Psychoanalysis transforms the dream into a narrative and is able to spell out the dream s symbols Gene technology narrates dynamic self evolving evolution as a gene code Discourses on globalization let the globe appear as once more globalized because reproduced through narrative Finally reality itself has come to be narrated in the form of a second reality that is called virtual This book attempts to disentangle the characteristics of human reality and posthuman virtual reality and asks whether it is possible to reconcile both A Beginner's Guide to Reality Jim Baggott, 2005-09-01 A Beginner s Guide to Reality is an introduction to philosophy for people who don t read philosophy Jim Baggott s sources range from Aristotle to The Matrix He examines the major developments in Western philosophical thought on the nature of reality at each of three levels social perceptual and physical Do money colour or photons exist The book systematically investigates these levels peeling away the assumptions we make about those parts of reality that we take for granted Huxley's Brave New World: Essays David Garrett Izzo, Kim Kirkpatrick, 2014-07-15 Aldous Huxley s prophetic novel of ideas warned of a terrible future then 600 years away Though

Brave New World was published less than a century ago in 1932 many elements of the novel's dystopic future now seem an eerily familiar part of life in the 21st century These essays analyze the influence of Brave New World as a literary and philosophical document and describe how Huxley forecast the problems of late capitalism Topics include the anti utopian ideals represented by the rigid caste system depicted the novel's influence on the philosophy of culture industry philosophers Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno the Nietzschean birth of tragedy in the novel's penultimate scene and the relationship of the novel to other dystopian works

The Matrix in Theory ,2016-08-01 The Matrix trilogy continues to split opinions widely polarising the downright dismissive and the wildly enthusiastic Nevertheless it has been fully embraced as a rich source of theoretical and cultural references The contributions in this volume probe the effects the Matrix trilogy continues to provoke and evaluate how or to what extent they coincide with certain developments within critical and cultural theory Is the enthusiastic philosophising and theorising spurred by the Matrix a sign of the desperate state theory is in in the sense of see how low theory or post theory has sunk Or could the Matrix be one of the master texts for something like a renewal for theory as now being mainly concerned with new and changing relations between science technology posthumanist culture art politics ethics and the media The present volume is unashamedly but not dogmatically theoretical even though there is not much agreement about what kind of theory is best suited to confront post theoretical times But it is probably fair to say that there is agreement about one thing namely that if theory appears to be like the Matrix today it does so because the culture around it and which made it itself seems to be captured in some kind of Matrix The only way out of this is through more and renewed refreshed theorising not less
