Your Relationships Arnaud van der Veere, 2021-01-25 What is a relationship We are all involved in relationships but do we really know what a relationship is To understand we need to investigate who we really are In all religions and philosophies people search for answers to understand who we are and what is the meaning of life itself Many want to know what is expected from us by others We explore the role of relationships in our life from the day we are able to communicate The Human is not a solitary being In nature we can withdraw ourselves temporarily from social contacts think for instance of the hermits of Hinduism and Buddhism who go to the mountains for contemplation and meditation but we always need to get back to the world and connect again This proves that humans are social beings and in need of contact Humans need to be a part of a community The community is the protection and life support A community can be the family or a larger environment Communication combined with emotional feelings in some cases physical attachment toward members of this community and environment is called a relationship A relationship is a combination of emotional attachment communication at all levels and social behavior toward other members of a community or environment We all need relationships Everybody needs multiple relationships of different nature to live a proper fruitful life In our society we have been taught that relationships are especially important but most people never understood the skills to start or maintain a relationship
