

7 MORE Great Ideas for Teaching ESL

1 My Routine

Students explain in groups their daily routines, practicing the simple present and adverbs of frequency, and then write journals on the topic.

2 Grammar Story

Students construct the story of a fictitious person, using pictures from magazines, and practice present, past, and future tenses to write about his or her life.

3 Headlines

To practice the passive voice, model and have students write headlines for their class: e.g., "The teacher's purse was stolen," "the students were taught passive voice."

4 If I Were a Rich Man

Teach the song from the musical "Fiddler on the Roof." Then students discuss and write about what they would do if they were rich, practicing the unreal conditional.

5 Controversial Issues

Introduce some issues like Capital Punishment. Students choose their teams, issues, research, read, write, and debate on their issue.

6 Plans and Predictions

Have students discuss the future, using different tenses, for what they plan for (to be going to) and predict (will).

7 Twenty Questions

Play the game: one student thinks of someone/something to be, and others try to guess what or who it is, using twenty yes/no questions: e.g., "Are you a person?"
