and postcolonial studies How to Research, Write and Publish an Art History Book in American Art Diane Elizabeth Kelleher, 2011-09-27 As the title suggests this book concerns the art and life of the world's only American Linear Impressionist Lilian Westcott Hale Born in Connecticut in 1881 Hale was educated primarily at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts Boston and lived for many years in nearby Dedham moving to Charlottesville Virginia after the death of her beloved educator art critic author and painter husband Philip Leslie Hale A woman Hale far outpaced the success of many men including her husband During her early decades of activity Hale garnered innumerable national awards accolades and prizes and international acclaim for her oil portraits of children women in interiors and charcoal sketches of snowy landscapes all created in an Impressionist style utilizing only vertical strokes Hale was the originator and sole practitioner of a technique which paradoxically used line in an Impressionist manner While her classic art fell out of favor during the Modernist 1940s it is now once again very much in vogue Art History and Visual Studies in Europe, 2012-06-22 Reflection on the history and practice of art history has long been a major topic of research and scholarship and this volume builds on this tradition by offering a critical survey of many of the major developments in the contemporary discipline such as the impact of digital technologies the rise of visual studies or new initiatives in conservation theory and practice Alongside these methodological issues this book addresses the mostly neglected question of the impact of national contexts on the development of the discipline Taking a wide range of case studies this book examines the impact of the specific national political institutional and ideological demands on the practice of art history The result is an account that both draws out common features and also highlights the differences and the plurality of practices that together constitute art history as a discipline Art History Dana Arnold, 2020-01-23 Art history encompasses the study of the history and development of painting sculpture and the other visual arts In this Very Short Introduction Dana Arnold presents an introduction to the issues debates and artefacts that make up art history Beginning with a consideration of what art history is she explains what makes the subject distinctive from other fields of study and also explores the emergence of social histories of art such as Feminist Art History and Queer Art History Using a wide range of images she goes on to explore key aspects of the discipline including how we write present read and look at art and the impact this has on our understanding of art history This second edition includes a new chapter on global art histories considering how the traditional emphasis on periods and styles in art originated in western art and can obscure other critical approaches and artwork from non western cultures Arnold also discusses the relationship between art and history and the ways in which art can tell a different history from the one narrated by texts ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan, 2023-07-28 This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth century Chinese art from a narratological perspective Theoretically and methodologically oriented this is a self reflective meta art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art Thus this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework the first hand fabula the secondary narration and the tertiary narrativization With this tertiary narrativization the reader author presents three types of narrative the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book the middle range narrative of the chapter theses and case analyses supporting these theses The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history critical theory Chinese studies and cultural studies

Fundamentals of Art History Anne D'Alleva, Michael Cothren, 2021-08-05 This invaluable guide enables students to get the most from their art history course Written in an accessible style the book introduces two basic art historical methods formal analysis and contextual analysis In this new edition revising author Michael Cothren has extended the discussion on iconography and iconology as well as adding discussions on the effects of the market and museums on art Greater emphasis is placed on the global and multicultural aspects of art creation and analysis with new images and more case studies There is more step by step guidance on how to use these methods to prepare for exams and write papers

Art History: A Very Short Introduction Dana Arnold, 2004-01-22 This clear and concise new introduction examines all the major debates and issues using a wide range of well known examples It discusses the challenge of using verbal and written language to analyse a visual form Dana Arnold also examines the many different ways of writing about art and the changing boundaries of the subject of art history Topics covered include the canon of Art History the role of the gallery blockbuster exhibitions the emergence of social histories of art Feminist Art History or Queer Art History for example the impact of photography and the development of Art History using artefacts such as the altarpiece the portrait or pornography to explore social and cultural issues such as consumption taste religion and politics Importantly this book explains how the traditional emphasis on periods and styles originates in western art production and can obscure other critical approaches as well as art from non western cultures

ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

Art history Michael Hatt, Charlotte Klonk, 2025-03-18 Art History A critical introduction to its methods provides a lively and stimulating introduction to methodological debates within art history Offering a lucid account of approaches from Hegel to post colonialism the book provides a sense of art history's own history as a discipline from its emergence in the late eighteenth century to contemporary debates By explaining the underlying philosophical and political assumptions behind each method along with clear examples of how these are brought to bear on visual and historical analysis the authors show that an adherence to a certain method is in effect a commitment to a set of beliefs and values The book makes a strong case for the vitality of the discipline and its methodological centrality to new fields such as visual culture This book will be of enormous value to undergraduate and graduate students and also makes its own contributions to ongoing scholarly debates about theory and method East Central European Art Histories and Austria Karolina

Majewska-Güde, Monika Leisch-Kiesl, 2024-05-06 The specific role of the Austro Hungarian Empire and the later nation of Austria within the formation of regional art histories in East Central Europe has received little attention in art historical research so far Taking into account the era of the Dual Monarchy as well as the period after 1989 the contributions analyze and critically scrutinize the imperial legacies transnational transfer processes and cultural hierarchies in art historiographies artistic practices and institutional histories Consisting of 17 texts with new commissions and one reprint case studies monographic essays and interviews grouped thematically into two sections the anthology proposes a pluriversal narrative on regional cultural and political contexts
