

5 STRATEGIES TO HELP STUDENTS SUCCEED

DEVELOP YOURSELF EVERYDAY

A good teacher should keep up with the latest 21st century trends. Find a way to integrate modern methods and ideas into your teaching if you want to fully engages students AND stand out among your peers.

SET THE BAR HIGH

Set high but achievable expectations for your students. Push them to achieve more through praises and occasional pep-talks. Remember to always give room for second chances

CREATE STRUCTURE

Create an effective and consistent routine for students to follow. This doesn't mean 'be boring' but an established routine WILL pay off and help you pay attention to individual student success.

INSPIRE STUDENTS

Students need to be constantly motivated to be in the right frame of mind to learn. Give them a feeling of recognition that helps them do more. Find out their hobbies and interests and incorporate that into part of your lesson too!

BE TRANSPARENT

Be genuinely interested in your students! Keep it real. Believe it or not, students only learn from people they like. Also keep in mind that something going on in their personal life could affect a child's performance so don't be unnecessarily harsh.
