Aesthetics of the Familiar Yuriko Saito, 2017 Yuriko Saito explores the nature and significance of the aesthetic dimensions of people s everyday life Everyday aesthetics has the recognized value of enriching one s life experiences and sharpening one s attentiveness and sensibility Saito draws out its broader importance for how we make our worlds environmentally morally as citizens and consumers Saito urges that we have a social responsibility to encourage cultivation of aesthetic literacy and vigilance against aesthetic manipulation Yuriko Saito argues that ultimately everyday aesthetics can be an effective instrument for directing the humanity s collective and cumulative world making project for the betterment of all its inhabitants Everyday aesthetics has been seen as a challenge to contemporary Anglo American aesthetics discourse which is dominated by the discussion of art and beauty Saito responds to controversies about the nature boundary and status of everyday aesthetics and argues for its legitimacy She highlights the multi faceted aesthetic dimensions of everyday life that are not fully accounted for by the commonly held account of defamiliarizing the familiar

168 Hours Laura Vanderkam, 2011-05-31 It s an unquestioned truth of modern life we are starved for time We tell ourselves we d like to read more get to the gym regularly try new hobbies and accomplish all kinds of goals But then we give up because there just aren t enough hours to do it all Or if we don t make excuses we make sacrifices taking time out from other things in order to fit it all in There has to be a better way and Laura Vanderkam has found one After interviewing dozens of successful happy people she realized that they allocate their time differently than most of us Instead of letting the daily grind crowd out the important stuff they start by making sure there s time for the important stuff When plans go wrong and they run out of time only their lesser priorities suffer Vanderkam shows that with a little examination and prioritizing you ll find it is possible to sleep eight hours a night exercise five days a week take piano lessons and write a novel without giving up quality time for work family and other things that really matter
