Joseph - Women's Bible Study Leader Guide Melissa Spoelstra, 2015-08-04 All of us know what it's like to be hurt or betrayed Often it's a small breach such as being spoken to rudely or overlooked in a time of need Other times we experience lies gossip or harsh words that cut us to the core Some of us have endured unspeakable pain through abuse adultery or abandonment God knows the pain we cause each other and longs to help us learn to practice forgiveness Nowhere do we see forgiveness played out more fully in Scripture than in the biblical story of Joseph This six week study explores what God has to say to us about grace and forgiveness through Joseph's story of trial and triumph found in Genesis 37-50 As we study his dreams his betrayers his dysfunctional family his struggle to forgive and his journey toward reconciliation we'll find truths that echo into our own personal situations as well as practical help for answering common questions such as How do I stop dwelling on the hurt Is forgiving someone excusing what happened When will I stop having to re-forgive Is there a difference between forgiveness and reconciliation How can I forgive and still set boundaries Is it ever okay not to forgive Whether or not you are working through a hurtful situation right now you can learn from Joseph how to release your past and present hurts to God and allow Him to do a supernatural work of forgiveness in your life God wants to use the very things intended to hurt you as a source of blessing in your life and the lives of others The Leader Guide contains six session plan outlines complete with discussion points and questions activities prayers and more plus leader helps for facilitating a group Other components for the Bible study available separately include a Participant Workbook DVD with six 20-25 minute sessions and boxed Leader Kit an all inclusive box containing one copy of each of the Bible study's components First Corinthians - Women's Bible Study Leader Guide Melissa

Spoelstra, 2016-08-02 Relationships are messy We're all different and imperfect and we can struggle to get along especially with those who disagree with us Often we find ourselves divided even as Christians How can we work out our differences and disagreements with humility and grace always showing the love of Christ while still remaining true to what we believe The Apostle Paul wrote to the Christians living in Corinth about this very thing The cultural backdrop of Corinth was even more overtly sinful than our culture today yet Paul boldly encouraged the Corinthian Christians not to ridicule one another or outsiders but to work together to show the love of Christ In this six week study we will explore Paul's first letter to the Corinthians to learn how we as Christians are to deal with differences and divisions whether in the workplace neighborhood school home social media community or church We'll discover that the answer is living and sharing the radical love of Jesus Christ and we'll unpack what this means and how we can live it out day by day The Leader Guide to be used along with the study's workbook and DVD contains six session plan outlines complete with discussion points and questions activities prayers and more plus leader helps for facilitating a group Other components for the Bible study available separately include a Participant Workbook DVD with six 25-30 minute sessions and boxed Leader Kit an all inclusive box containing one copy of each of the Bible study's components Women's Experiences in Leadership in K-16 Science Education Communities, Becoming and Being Katherine C. Wieseman, Molly Weinburgh, 2009-06-18 A discourse on women's leadership within science education has until now been largely invisible in book form This therefore is the first book to address women's leadership within science education The book embraces relational ways of knowing as a foundation for leadership and takes courageous steps by exposing our innermost tensions dilemmas and feelings about leadership making them available to others The power promise of feminine approaches to transform traditional leadership cultures is also addressed The authors believe that anyone can lead regardless of position title years of experience or age They also believe that each of us has a responsibility to provide some leadership and direction for the shared endeavours of which we are part The purpose of the book is to inspire and guide educators and academics in K 16 science education as well as individuals in other professions as their leadership skills develop The leadership activities provided offer guidance and or concrete ways to delve into issues of leadership

Children Today ,1983 The Depression Handbook for Writers Giselle Renarde, If you re a writer living with depression you might not know where to turn There are days when depression devours your words and you find yourself incapable of working People tell you you re not alone So why does it feel like you are As an author with chronic depression Giselle Renarde created this book as a means of reaching out to other writers with hope in hand The Depression Handbook for Writers includes specific activities to help you through the dark days practical ideas to help you move forward with your writing business even when you find it impossible to write interviews with other authors experiencing depression all written in a personal accessible and heartfelt tone The Depression Handbook for Writers was written for you with love care and encouragement Download your copy today Leadership Gender And Culture In Education Collard, John,Reynolds, Cecilia,2004-10-01 This rich explorative book examines the intricacies of gender sexuality ethnicity and class and how these complex influences weave their patterns in the daily lives of leaders It achieves the difficult balance between acknowledging differences as well as unifying elements The book also raises many questions about the context for leadership and examines the central issues of leadership for what What are leaders there to do and for whom To ensure that students achieve higher examination scores or to promote equity and social justice This book offers many fresh insights into these and other important questions Professor Kathryn Riley Institute of Education University of London This book features chapters by leading international scholars on gender and educational leadership Drawing on research in schools in the United Kingdom Australia New Zealand Sweden the United States and Canada it introduces new discussions about the impact of gender race class institutional setting and recent ideologies on leadership discourses The book shows how early research has over emphasized gender stereotypes and tended to simplify and polarize the ways men and women lead Looking at differences and similarities in how men and women take on and exercise leadership roles the authors counter essentialist claims based on biological psychological and sociological theories that stress gender difference The discussions employ sophisticated understandings of gender relations and leadership discourses in today s globalized context The book is for students and scholars studying leadership and for leaders in different educational contexts around the world Hand in Hand Diane P. Wormsley,Frances Mary D'Andrea, Show the Value of What You Do Patricia Pulliam Phillips,Jack J Phillips,2022-09-20 By the winners of the Association for Talent Development s 2022 Thought Leader award Prove your effectiveness to anyone and achieve professional success by adopting the same ROI methods and metrics that leading companies use In an era of evidence based inquiry people need to be able to demonstrate the value of their projects credibly But how do you do that when there isn't an obvious measure connected to the project like increased sales. In their new book Patti and Jack Phillips, the cofounders of ROI Institute show how you can adopt the same methodology used by more than 6,000 organizations in seventy countries to evaluate large institutional initiatives. By following their six-step process you can build a case for any project, process or intervention, even so-called soft programs. For example, the first case study in the book involves successfully demonstrating the effectiveness of chaplaincy in an intensive care unit. The authors explain how to link your project to a meaningful business outcome, make sure your project will actually influence that outcome, identify metrics that will show if you're making progress, collect and analyze data, and use the results to build support. This book includes extensive examples from a wide range of organizations: businesses, nonprofits, schools, law enforcement, and more. It provides diagnostic tools and supportive practices and even offers advice on how to find a positive interpretation for results that don't conform to your anticipated outcome. Answering the question "Is it worth it?" defines the ultimate value of any project. Using the methodology this book presents will keep your work relevant, your career on track, and your organization healthy.
