Education in Retrospect Andre Kraak, Michael F. D. Young, 2001 The Institute of Education has been closely involved with post apartheid developments in education policy in South Africa The book examines the current policy dilemmas in South Africa It also provides a sophisticated exploration of the tensions that can occur between and among policy makers and policy researchers as a local vision is translated into reality in a global context At the same time the book provides clear evidence of the value as well as the difficulty of continuing dialogue between these groups which might usefully be heeded in those countries where such interaction too rarely takes place Getting Skills Right Community Education and Training in South Africa OECD,2019-03-14 Adult learning systems play a crucial role in helping people adapt to the changing world of work and develop relevant skills Community Education and Training has been brought forward as a possible way to foster adult learning in South Africa especially among disadvantaged groups South Africa Practising Education, Training and Development in South African Organisations Melinde Coetzee,2007 The book contains a unique and refreshingly new perspective on education training and development ETD practices in the 21st century workplace context It moves away from merely revamping known and traditional principles of ETD to providing the reader and student with practical tools and new perspectives on the changing and broadening role of the ETD practitioner in the workplace It contains new and transformative models practical applications and guidelines for students and readers on the South African outcomes based approach to ETD the profession and practice of ETD including quality assurance aspects Development Planning in South Africa John Reynolds,2018-06-15 Celebrated as a beacon of democracy and reconciliation many people in South Africa continue to live in severe poverty particularly in the Eastern Cape Province Backed by the United Nations Development Programme the Eastern Cape s provincial government consequently launched an historically ambitious programme the Provincial Growth and Development Plan aimed at tackling the province s poverty unemployment and inequality over a ten year period in a radical policy overhaul Drawing on the author s first hand engagement with the planning process Development Planning in South Africa is an empirically rich study that utilises a strategic relational approach to explore the ways in which this unprecedented challenge was negotiated and eventually undermined by the South African state The first work of its kind the book provides an indispensable micro level study with profound implications for how state power is understood to be organised and expressed in state policy Relevant beyond South Africa to policy implementation in both developing and developed states globally the book is essential reading for students and scholars of government studies political economy development policy studies and social movements African Youth and the Persistence of Marginalization Danielle Resnick,James Thurlow,2015-04-10 The much heralded growth and transformation of many economies in sub Saharan Africa over the last decade continues to receive prominent attention in academic scholarship and among policy practitioners An apparent feature about this transformation however is that Africa s youth appear to have been left out This book critically examines the extent and consequences of the marginalization of African youth It questions conventional wisdoms about data trends aspirational goals and common policy interventions surrounding Africa s youth that have been variously propagated in both the development studies literature and in mainstream donor policy reports The book explores macro trends from both a temporal and cross regional perspective in order to highlight what is distinct about contemporary African youth and whether their prospects and behaviours do actually vary from their counterparts in other regions of the world or from previous generations of African youth Such studies include cross country analyses of youth employment patterns and modes of political participation in depth examination of the behaviours and aspirations of the urban youth and critical reflections on the impact of rural employment initiatives vocational education and learnership programmes The incorporation of multiple methods and disciplines as well as its attention to policy issues ensures that the book will be of great interest to graduate students researchers and professional researchers whose work lies at the intersection of African area studies and development studies as well as those focused on development economics political science and public policy and administration
