Romance Writing Lynne Pearce, 2007-01-05 Exploring the nature of both the romance genre and the discourse of romantic love from the 17th century to the present day, this book shows how in the history of literature lovers have utilised its spark to change not only themselves but also their worlds through acts of creativity and heroism. Women and Romance Susan Ostrov Weisser, 2001-07 Weisser English Adelphi U writes that her anthology is for anyone who is interested in understanding the conflicted but powerful female urge to experience the pleasure and endure the pain of romantic love. In particular, she explores the collision of pervasive media images of romance with feminist values of independence and self-assertion. Several dozen historic and contemporary works of criticism, personal essays, and letters by feminist and anti-feminist thinkers consider changing images of romantic love and whether romance fundamentally weakens or empowers women. Contributors include Jean Jacques Rousseau, Charlotte Bronte, Karen Horney, Simone de Beauvoir, Rita Mae Brown, bell hooks, Vivian Gornick, and Carolyn Heilbrun. c. Book News Inc. Writing an Identity Not Your Own Alex Temblador, 2024-08-13 A practical guide to help authors authentically write and edit a character whose identity is different than their own. Do you have the tools to authentically write and edit a character whose identity is different than your own? It's not a subject that's generally taught in creative writing programs, and there are so few craft books and online resources on the subject. Even if you can take a seminar, class, or workshop, there's nothing like having an easy-to-understand book on hand to provide guidance and insight every time you craft characters with historically marginalized identities. In Writing an Identity Not Your Own, award-winning author Alex Temblador discusses one of the most contentious topics in creative writing: crafting a character whose identity is historically marginalized. What is identity, and how do unconscious biases and bias blocks impact and influence what we write What is intersectionality You ll learn about identity terms stereotypes and tropes and receive genre specific advice related to various identities to consider when writing different races and ethnicities sexual and romantic orientations gender identities disabilities nationalities and more Through writing strategies exercises and literary excerpts writers will gain a clearer understanding on how misrepresentations and harmful portrayals can appear in storylines dialogue and characterization Alex will guide writers from the brainstorming phase through the editing process so they can gain a full understanding of the complexities of writing other identities and why it s important to get them right

Black,2015-12-21 PREFACE Home for the holidays her reason for going back to Heavens Cove the small Alabama town that was home had little to do with celebrating the season All Gemma wanted for Christmas this year was a nice quick divorce Eight years ago at only 22 she d made one of the biggest mistakes of her life marrying too young too soon to a man she barely knew If she was going to get on with her future and the possible new love in her life It had been three years since she d left her husband well past time to put a period on the disaster that was her marriage Thatcher had made one of the biggest mistake of his life letting Gemma go He d had no choice at the time but now that she was back giving her the divorce she wanted wouldn t be as easy as he thought She d earned her way out of their marriage he readily admitted that And he couldn t give her a guarantee that he wouldn t screw things up again even though he wanted to more than anything Then there was Laney to consider She was more than perfect for him She d stood by him when no one else had Should he let Gemma go free her to find the type of love he could never give her and build a future with Laney He could be happy with her and make a fresh start Or should he fight for the love he and Gemma once shared Was it too late Would she dare give him another chance Mama you know better than anyone what happened between me and Thatcher I couldn t go back to that kind of relationship And my life is in New York now not to mention there s there s someone else Someone else So that s what this sudden interest in getting a divorce is all about You've met someone else and are ready to move on Well not exactly I mean I'm not involved right at this minute There is something I think I'd like to explore But I can't do that still being married even though me and Thatcher have only been married on paper for years now I see said Emmaline her mother Why did you say it like that Gemma asked You've already butted in mama you might as well go ahead and tell me what you think Well remember you did ask Emmaline stated before rushing on Don't open one door not even partially until you have completely closed the other Just by your reaction to seeing Thatcher I can tell you still have a lot of unresolved feelings for him And if there is even a whisper of love left in you for that man you need to explore that before trying to move on with anyone else Otherwise you'll always regret it because I know how much you loved him Gemma was more confused than ever as she crawled into bed that night The simple wish she had come home for Christmas to have granted was turning out to be not so simple after all
