How Sex Got Screwed Up: The Ghosts that Haunt Our Sexual Pleasure - Book One Jon Knowles, 2019-03-31 The ghosts that haunt our sexual pleasure were born in the Stone Age Sex and gender taboos were used by tribes to differentiate themselves from one another These taboos filtered into the lives of Bronze and Iron Age men and women who lived in city states and empires For the early Christians all sex play was turned into sin instilled with guilt and punished severely With the invention of sin came the construction of women as subordinate beings to men Despite the birth of romance in the late middle ages Renaissance churches held inquisitions to seek out and destroy sex sinners all of whom it saw as heretics The Age of Reason saw the demise of these inquisitions But it was doctors who would take over the roles of priests and ministers as sex became defined by discourses of crime degeneracy and sickness The middle of the 20th century saw these medical and religious teachings challenged for the first time as activists such as Alfred Kinsey and Margaret Sanger sought to carve out a place for sexual freedom in society However strong opposition to their beliefs and the growing exploitation of sex by the media at the close of the century would ultimately shape 21st century sexual ambivalence Volume I of this two part publication traces the history of sex from the Stone Age to the Enlightenment Interspersed with personal hauntings from his own life and the lives of friends and relatives Knowles reveals how historical discourses of sex continue to haunt us today This book is a page turner in simple and plain language about how sex got screwed up for millennia For Knowles if we know the history of sex we can get over it You Can Never Satisfy a Woman Robert Gonzalez,2022-04-08

Resurrecting Chivalry Mohammed Muflahi,2015-03-04 Women are thinkers and takers Men are scorers and breakers Reality sucks The truth hurts Lies appease The genetic code of each species cannot be changed The animal in every man is caged He is happy locked away behind bars in his prison of silence Entice the beast and hell murder the prey Women are the keys to control the fury If the curiosity of the howling sounds lures them towards the mating call that every wolf seeks to taste they will ravage the meal They must keep the doors to that pleasure locked and the beast remains shackled Women are magnetic fields emitting a mighty force through the language her body speaks She walks like the moon and the motion of her sways linger leaving behind marks on mans territory She is beautiful flawless hypnotic and perfect A species with such attributes must be the jewel in the museum to be admired for her miraculous existence Displaying the priceless ornament will tempt the insatiable thief to steal and blemish the purity of a unique stone We are different To tame the wild nature of man her distance from the wolf is imperative Crawling towards him with her spineless motives and empty words pretending to be victual his hunger will exacerbate and his greed impossible to control Women must be modest That which is not on show cannot tempt and that which cannot tempt will be safe and that which is safe is protected and secured and out of harms way Aesthetic Pleasure in Twentieth-Century Women's Food Writing Alice McLean,2012-05-22 This book explores the aesthetic pleasures of eating and writing in the lives of M F K Fisher 1908 1992 Alice B Toklas 1877 1967 and Elizabeth David 1913 1992 Growing up during a time when women s food writing was largely limited to the domestic cookbook which helped to codify the guidelines of middle class domesticity Fisher Toklas and David claimed the pleasures of gastronomy previously reserved for men Articulating a language through which female desire is artfully and publicly sated Fisher Toklas and David expanded women s food writing beyond the domestic realm by pioneering forms of self expression that celebrate female appetite for pleasure and for culinary adventure In so doing they illuminate the power of genre bending food writing to transgress and reconfigure conventional gender ideologies For these women food encouraged a sensory engagement with their environment and a physical receptivity toward pleasure that engendered their creative aesthetic

Umleavyo Mary Ntukula, Rita Liljeström, 2004 Umleavyo The Dilemma of Parents is composed of studies on the gap between the generations and how this gap has widened over the past century The past serves as the seemingly stable background on which to project currently fluid and ambiguous parent child relationships The focus of the studies is often on the different methods and goals for bringing up the next generation These range from physical punishment to achieving compliance through fear and reference to supernatural forces to initiation ceremonies that provide multiple precautions and timely instruction on marriage and procreation to the emphasis on relations between people as the most crucial experiences and to the encouragement of a sense personal responsibility This volume is based on the narratives of the grandparents parents and youths in the villages of the Pare people in the north and of the initiation leaders in Songea in the south and on a comparison of the opinions of elders and youths about gender issues among the Nyakyusa The unwillingness of parents to talk about a topic so delicate that they cannot find the right words is confronted Parents are handicapped in their efforts to discuss sexual matters with their children by a lack of terms that are sufficiently clear without being crude Part of the parents dilemma arises from societal conditions they cannot control For a long time individualisation has been understood as a response to hitherto unknown opportunities opened up by education science and technology Currently there are two main branches of individualism one involving those who have been able to emancipate themselves and reap some of the benefits of modernisation and another for those for whom the modern economies have no use surplus people individualised by force poverty and eroding social bonds How should one support youths for whom there is no clear passage to full adulthood How can one forge links between the plight of families and issues of citizenship and public action These are some of the questions raised in this book

Sex, Time, and Power Leonard Shlain, 2004-08-03 As in the bestselling The Alphabet Versus the Goddess Leonard Shlain's provocative new book promises to change the way readers view themselves and where they came from Sex Time and Power offers a tantalizing answer to an age old question Why did big brained Homo sapiens suddenly emerge some 150 000 years ago The key according to Shlain is female sexuality Drawing on an awesome breadth of research he shows how long ago the narrowness of the newly bipedal human female's pelvis and the increasing size of infants heads precipitated a crisis for the species Natural selection allowed for the adaptation of the human female to this environmental stress by reconfiguring her hormonal cycles entraining them with the periodicity of the moon The results however did much more than ensure our existence they imbued women with the concept of time and gave them control over sex a power that males sought to reclaim And the possibility of achieving immortality through heirs drove men to construct patriarchal cultures that went on to dominate so much of human history From the nature of courtship to the evolution of language Shlain
