some do indeed achieve to great gayness Representation of homosexuality homoeroticism as it is understood today is thus a western import The act and public social discourses on same sex love are still illegal it is according to many against the Indian tradition and a sense of history is seriously problematic when we dig out for a past tradition of homoerotic love and desire Hoshang Merchant through an examination of texts films poetry attempts to analyse and crack the codes of sexual misconduct in contemporary India giving short histories of the fate of several gay writers and explaining the difficulties of coming out

Text and Tradition in South India Velcheru Narayana Rao, 2017-06-01 Velcheru Narayana Rao's contribution to understanding Indian cultural history literary production and intellectual life specifically from the vantage of the Andhra region has few parallels He is one of the very rare scholars to be able to reflect magisterially on the precolonial and colonial periods He moves easily between Sanskrit and the vernacular traditions and between the worlds of orality and script This is because of his mastery of the classical Telugu tradition As Sanjay Subrahmanyam puts it in his Introduction To command nearly a thousand years of a literary tradition is no small feat but more important still is VNR's ability constantly to offer fresh readings and provocative frameworks for interpretation The essays and reflections in Text and Tradition in South India bring together the diverse and foundational contributions made by Narayana Rao to the rewriting of India's cultural and literary history The book is for anyone interested in the history of Indian ideas the social and cultural history of South India and the massive intellectual traditions of the subcontinent

Castes and Tribes of Southern India (Complete) Edgar Thurston, 2020-09-28 In 1894 equipped with a set of anthropometric instruments obtained on loan from the Asiatic Society of Bengal I commenced an investigation of the tribes of the Nilgiri hills the Todas Kotas and Badagas bringing down on myself the unofficial criticism that anthropological research at high altitudes is eminently indicated when the thermometer registers 100 in Madras From this modest beginning have resulted 1 investigation of various classes which inhabit the city of Madras 2 periodical tours to various parts of the Madras Presidency with a view to the study of the more important tribes and classes 3 the publication of Bulletins wherein the results of my work are embodied 4 the establishment of an anthropological laboratory 5 a collection of photographs of Native types 6 a series of lantern slides for lecture purposes 7 a collection of phonograph records of tribal songs and music The scheme for a systematic and detailed ethnographic survey of the whole of India received the formal sanction of the Government of India in 1901 A Superintendent of Ethnography was appointed for each Presidency or Province to carry out the work of the survey in addition to his other duties The other duty in my particular case the direction of a large local museum happily made an excellent blend with the survey operations as the work of collection for the ethnological section went on simultaneously with that of investigation The survey was financed for a period of five afterwards extended to eight years and an annual allotment of Rs 5 000 provided for each Presidency and Province This included Rs 2 000 for approved notes on monographs and replies to the stereotyped series of questions The replies to these questions were not I am bound to admit always entirely satisfactory as they broke down both in accuracy and detail I
