Poetry, Practical Theology and Reflective Practice Mark Pryce, 2019-03-13 This groundbreaking study offers an innovative critical analysis of poetry as a resource for reflective practice in the context of continuing professional development In the contemporary drive in all professions for greater rigour in education training and development little attention is paid to the inner shape of learning and meaning making for individuals and groups especially ways in which individuals are formed for the task of their work Building on empirical research into the author s professional practice the book takes the use of poetry in clergy continuing ministerial development as a case study to examine the value of poetry in professional learning Setting out the advantages and limitations of poetry as a stimulant for imaginative critical reflexivity and formation within professional reflective practice the study develops a practical model for group reflection around poetry distilling pedagogical approaches for working effectively with poetry in continuing professional development Drawing together a number of strands of thinking about poetry Practical Theology and reflective practice into a tightly argued study the book is an important methodological resource It makes available a range of primary and secondary sources offering researchers into professional practice a model of ethnographic research in Practical Theology which embraces innovative methods for reflexivity and theological reflection including the value of auto ethnographic poetry The Athenaeum ,1851 The Athenæum ,1851 Athenaeum ,1862

Robert Bloomfield, Romanticism and the Poetry of Community Simon J. White,2016-12-05 Robert Bloomfield whom John Clare described as the most original poet of the age was a widely read and critically acclaimed poet throughout the first decade of the nineteenth century and remained popular until the beginning of the twentieth century Yet until now no modern critic has undertaken a full length study of his poetry and its contexts Simon J White considers the relationship between Bloomfield s poetry and that of other Romantic poets For example her argues that Wordsworth s poetics of rural life was in some respects a response to Bloomfield s The Farmer s Boy White considers Bloomfield s emphasis on the importance of local tradition and community in the lives of labouring people In challenging the idea that the formal and rhetorical innovation of Wordsworth and Coleridge was principally responsible for the emergence of a new kind of poetry at the turn of the eighteenth century he also shows that it is impossible to understand how the lyric and the literary ballad evolved during the Romantic period without considering Bloomfield s poetry White s authoritative study demonstrates that on the contrary Bloomfield s poetry was pivotal in the development of Romanticism The Speaker ,1899 The song of Dermot (Macmurrough) and the Earl.
