A Race Against Time James G. Cibulka, William L. Boyd, 2003-03-30 We are in a race against time to save urban children from educational failure and to reform urban school systems before people give up on them The authors examine the effectiveness of three reform approaches systems reform mayoral influence and external state or federal intervention using case studies from seven large cities as well as state and national trends The social and economic transformation of large American cities after World War II laid the seeds for the crisis in urban education that has festered and grown since the 1950s Decades of appalling test scores and failure rates and of unsuccessful piecemeal efforts to improve urban education have led the public and policymakers to embrace radical solutions to reform Three approaches to the reform of urban school governance are discussed and analyzed using data from seven large cities Baltimore Boston Chicago Los Angeles Philadelphia Washington D C and New York national trends and a statewide analysis of Maryland s school accountability system The first approach systems reform focuses on improving the governance of urban education by overcoming policy fragmentation through standards for student performance student assessments and accountability among other things Strong mayoral roles offer a second reform approach that largely reverses the Progressive era reforms of the last century separating schools from city politics Its supporters believe urban mayors can restore accountability stability and political support for urban schools The third reform approach assumes that external intervention by federal or state authorities is needed to restore accountability and improve system performance

Reforming Teacher Education Sheila Nataraj Kirby, 2006 Teacher education has been subject to both scathing criticism and innumerable efforts designed to reform it or to save it from being dismantled One of the latest and most well funded efforts aimed at teacher education reform is boldly titled Teachers for a New Era TNE Eleven colleges and universities of various types nationwide were selected to participate in TNE The TNE initiative emphasizes evidence based decisionmaking close collaboration between education and arts and sciences faculty and teaching as an academically taught clinical practice profession The RAND Corporation and the M

Approaches to Inclusive English Classrooms Kate Mastruserio Reynolds, 2015 This accessible book takes a critical approach towards content based instruction methods bridging the gap between theory and practice in order to allow teachers to make an informed decision about best practices for an inclusive classroom It is a resource for both educators and ESL teachers working within an English learner inclusion environment

Multiethnic Moments Susan Clarke, 2006-09-15 When courts lifted their school desegregation orders in the 1990s declaring that black and white students were now integrated in America s public schools it seemed that a window of opportunity would open for Latinos Asians and people of other races and ethnicities to influence school reform efforts However in most large cities the multiethnic moment passed without leading to greater responsiveness to burgeoning new constituencies Multiethnic Moments examines school systems in four major U S cities Boston Denver Los Angeles and San Francisco to uncover the factors that worked for and against ethnically representative school change More than a case study this book is a concentrated effort to come to grips with the multiethnic city as a distinctive setting It utilizes the politics of education reform to provide theoretically grounded empirical scholarship about the broader contemporary politics of race and ethnicity emphasizing the intersection of interests ideas and institutions with the differing political legacies of each of the cities under consideration Resources in Education ,1995 Analysis of the School Preferred Reading

Program in Selected Los Angeles Minority Schools ,1976 School Choice at the Crossroads Mark Berends,R. Joseph Waddington,John Schoenig,2018-10-04 School Choice at the Crossroads compiles exemplary policy relevant research on school choice options voucher private charter and traditional public schools as they have been implemented across the nation Renowned contributors highlight the latest rigorous research findings and implications on school vouchers tuition tax credits and charter schools in states and local areas at the forefront of school choice policy Examining national and state level perspectives each chapter discusses the effects of choice and vouchers on student outcomes the processes of choice supportive conditions of school choice programs comparative features of school choice and future research This timely volume addresses whether school choice works under what conditions and for whom further informing educational research policy and practice Changing Policies to Close the Achievement Gap Cynthia D. Prince,2004-04-30 In this guide Cynthia D Prince identifies state and local policies that tend to make the achievement gap worse and describes policy changes that superintendents have made with the support of their boards to help narrow the gap She also examines policies that aggravate the inequitable distribution of quality teachers and principals that restrict student access to challenging coursework and that reduce academic instruction time Assessing Teacher, Classroom, and School Effects Allan Odden,2014-04-04 This is Volume 79 Issue 4 2004 of the Peabody Journal of Education and this special issue provides a collection of works on the topic of Assessing Teacher Classroom and School Effects in the US The six articles focus generally on new directions in assessing and measuring teacher classroom and school effects on improvements in student academic achievement and more specifically analyze the criterion validity and surrounding human resources strategies of new efforts to implement performance based teacher evaluations the results of which in some cases are linked to new knowledge and skills based teacher salary schedules California Dropouts ,1986 Developing in Two Languages Sarah J. Shin,2005 An exploration of dual language development among Korean American children this book sheds light on some of the myths associated with bilingualism It argues that the bilingualism of linguistic minority children is a resource to be cultivated treasured rather than a problem to be overcome
