stitched with every stitch This black magic is added to the wedding quilt by a helpless 17 year old beautiful slave whose rather monstrous and spoiled self centered mistress intends to sell her off after her own wedding and then orders her to make her wedding quilt And evil is prayed into every stitch every patch every inch of the quilt cursing the mistress and her husband with death and destruction And that took me to the idea of writing a book on quilting Quilting has long been a tradition in many places where things of beauty were made by a group of women gathering together and gossiping in their leisure time while they made something useful for their families In the East traditionally was embroidery work done by the elderly women sitting in the sun and stitching the clothes of their granddaughters When one of my aunts got married she wore a heavy veil of which every inch had been stitched lovingly by her friends every afternoon That veil is of course 45 years old now and a priceless heirloom This was a traditional practice in many parts of the world but also there was an age old practice of piecing together scrap patches of fabric and then sewing them by hand edge to edge to create decorative designs and patterns Do not confuse patchwork with quilting These are 2 different art forms often done together Patchwork has gone back millennia in ancient Egypt Asia Africa and Europe when pieces of cloth which had been so long around that you really could not be bothered to repair the garment were gathered together and made into something useful for the house
