Bateham, 1845 The Athenaeum , 1847 Anthropology of Ascendant China Mayfair Yang, 2024-05-06 This volume represents the latest research in cultural anthropology on an ascendant and globalizing China covering the many different dimensions of China's ascendancy both within China itself and beyond. It focuses not only on the real and perceived successes of China in the past four decades but also on the difficulties, tensions and dangers that have emerged as a result of rapid economic development, class polarization, state expansion, psychological distress and environmental degradation. Including contributions by some of the most well known cultural anthropologists of China as well as rising innovative younger scholars, this book documents and analyzes China's multifaceted transformations in the modern era both within Chinese society and in Chinese relations with the outside world. It features the unique perspective of anthropology with its on the ground, deep cultural immersion through long term fieldwork coupled with a macrolevel global perspective, a strong historical perspective and theoretically engaged analyses to present a balanced account of China's ascendancy. Anthropology of Ascendant China: Histories, Attainments and Tribulations is suitable for students and scholars in Anthropology, Sociology, History, Political Science and East Asian Studies as well as those working on contemporary Chinese society and culture more broadly. The Making of the Modern Refugee Peter Gatrell, 2013-09-13 The Making of the Modern Refugee is a comprehensive history of global population displacement in the twentieth century. It takes a new approach to the subject exploring its causes, consequences and meanings. History, the author shows, provides important clues to understanding how the idea of refugees as a problem embedded itself in the minds of policy makers and the public and poses a series of fundamental questions about the nature of enforced migration and how it has shaped society throughout the twentieth century across a broad geographical area from Europe and the Middle East to South Asia, South East Asia and sub-Saharan Africa. Wars, revolutions and state formation are invoked as the main causal explanations of displacement and are considered alongside the emergence of a twentieth century refugee regime, linking governmental practices, professional expertise and humanitarian relief efforts. This new study rests upon scholarship from several disciplines and draws extensively upon oral testimony, eye witness accounts and film as well as unpublished source material in the archives of governments, international organisations and non governmental organisations. The Making of the Modern Refugee explores the significance that refugees attached to the places they left behind, to their journeys and to their destinations in short, how refugees helped to interpret and fashion their own history. Climate Change, Conflict and (In)Security Timothy Clack, Ziya Meral, Louise Selisny, 2023-12-01 This book offers a multidisciplinary exploration of how climate change is impacting conflicts, contention and competition in the world. The volume examines how climate change is creating and exacerbating insecurities for millions of people globally and how states inter governmental bodies and others are attempting to meet challenges today and in the near and medium term It shows that climate change insecurity is relevant to a battery of security areas including warfighting stabilisation human security influence and resilience and capacity building The volume provides insights into how climate change has and will impact security at different scales and in different localities including national and ethnic tensions food and water security resource competition mass displacement and even the recruitment profiles and operations of violent and extremist organisations With contributions from pioneering researchers and practitioners the book discusses shifting operational requirements and responsibilities and the need for clarity around the size and shape of capacity gaps In addition to practitioners and policy makers working in these areas the book will be of significant interest to researchers and students of defence studies peace and conflict studies climate change and environmental security and International Relations
