Catherine Ingrassia, 2015-04-23 Essays by leading scholars provide a comprehensive overview of women writers and their work in Restoration and eighteenth century Britain Fictions of Presence Rosalind Ballaster, 2020 An absorbing study of the contested embodiment of the idea of presence in the plays and novels of the eighteenth century A Genealogy of the Gentleman Mary Beth Harris, 2024-03-15 A Genealogy of the Gentleman argues that eighteenth century women writers made key interventions in modern ideals of masculinity and authorship through narrative constructions of the gentleman in courtship novels This codification of the gentleman allowed women authors to carve out a space for their literary authority not by overtly opposing their male critics and society s patriarchal structure but by rewriting the persona of the gentleman as a figure whose very desirability and hegemonic power were dependent on women s influence 4E Cognition and Eighteenth-Century Fiction Karin Kukkonen, 2019-01-16 Through study of female writers of the eighteenth century novel Kukkonen explores how literary texts draw on embodied experience and the lived reality of literature and reading She approaches embodied style through the approach of 4E cognition which understands the mind as embodied embedded extended and enactive in the environment The work breaks new ground in showing the promise of 4E cognition for cognitive poetics and how the fiction writing develops diverse repertoires of embodied language for the history of the novel Making Love Paul Kelleher, 2015-07-16 In Making Love Sentiment and Sexuality in Eighteenth Century British Literature Paul Kelleher revises the history of sexuality from the vantage point of the literary history of sentimentalism Kelleher demonstrates how eighteenth century British philosophers essayists and novelists fundamentally reconceived the relations among sentiment sexuality and moral virtue It is his contention that sentimental discourse both philosophical and literary posited heterosexual desire as the precondition of moral feeling and conduct The author further suggests that sentimental writers fashioned the ideal of conjugal love as an ideological antidote to the theories of self love and self interest found in the works of Thomas Hobbes and Bernard Mandeville Heterosexual desire and its culmination in conjugal love in other words were represented as the privileged means for an individual to transcend self love and to develop a moral sensibility attuned to the thoughts and feelings of others At the same time Kelleher suggests other pleasures and desires particularly those rooted in same sex eroticism were increasingly depicted as antithetical to conjugal love and thus were morally devalued and socially disenfranchised Kelleher's argument unfolds through close readings of a variety of texts including Shaftesbury's Characteristics of Men Manners Opinions Times Joseph Addison and Richard Steele's the Tatler and the Spectator Eliza Haywood's Love in Excess Samuel Richardson's Pamela and Henry Fielding's Tom Jones Although these texts embody diverse rhetorical strategies and thematic concerns he shows how they collectively reinforce an overarching sentimental ideology on the one hand heterosexual desire and conjugal love become synonymous with sympathy benevolence and moral goodness while on the other hand same sex desire is pathologized as a selfish withdrawal from procreation domesticity sociability and ultimately humanity itself Rooney Custom Text: ENGL 2302A: Literature and Cultures, 1500-1700 Version 2 Broadview perspectives and methodologies previously unseen As the contributors demonstrate eighteenth century anxieties over mortality the body the soul and the corpse inspired many writers of the time to both implicitly and explicitly embed mortality and sexuality within their works By depicting the necrophilic tendencies of libertines and rapacious villains the fetishizing of death and mourning by virtuous heroines or the fantasy of preserving the body these authors demonstrate not only the tragic results of sexual play but the persistent fantasy of necro erotica This book shows that within the eighteenth century culture of profound modern change underworkings of death and mourning are often eroticized that sex is often equated with death as punishment or loss of the self and that the sex death dialectic lies at the discursive center of normative conceptions of gender desire and social power
