HIV/AIDS in Bangladesh Alak Paul, 2020-10-13 This book aims to show the conditions and behaviors of vulnerable and marginalized people in Bangladesh which put them at risk of HIV AIDS infection and what their adopted coping strategies are and how these play out In addition the book seeks to gain an understanding of the perceptions of civil society and policy planners with respect to vulnerability to HIV and the necessary mitigation measures While there is much published literature on the epidemiology and etiology for the most at risk groups in the region there has not yet been any in depth research concerning the socio cultural and geographic impacts of HIV issues in Bangladesh Almost all of the literature shows HIV as an epidemiological problem rather than investigating it from a social or cultural point of view and still less using qualitative methods The present work is an endeavor to fill these gaps by providing valuable qualitative field data to demonstrate the causes of HIV risk and vulnerability and to examine the nature of the social and locational context of HIV AIDS in Bangladesh and to assist with health care policy planning The book will be of use to students and researchers studying public health health geography medical sociology medical anthropology social psychology and social epidemiology and to professionals in the fields of development community medicine health management and social policy

Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1964 Global counter-terrorism Sagnik Dutta,Tahir Abbas,Sylvia I. Bergh,2025-02-25 This collection aims to inaugurate a new direction in research on counterterrorism by exploring global connections both in terms of practices and discourses as well as shared ideas and epistemes that animate counterterrorism practices The chapters grouped under the themes of postcoloniality and coloniality and entanglements of the transnational and the local and counterterrorism and right wing extremism are attentive to global connections and are mindful of the complexities of global historical processes that constitute the politics of counterterrorism This book aims to bring together scholars studying counterterrorism in the global North and the global South to explore convergence and divergence in how counterterrorism policies function in a range of national and local contexts

Feminism/Femininity in Chinese Literature ,2016-08-22 The present volume of Critical Studies is a collection of selected essays on the topic of feminism and femininity in Chinese literature Although feminism has been a hot topic in Chinese literary circles in recent years this remarkable collection represents one of the first of its kind to be published in English The essays have been written by well known scholars and feminists including Kang I Sun Chang of Yale University and Li Ziyun a writer and feminist in Shanghai China The essays are inter and multi disciplinary covering several historical periods in poetry and fiction from the Ming Qing periods to the twentieth century In particular the development of women s writing in the New Period post 1976 is examined in depth The articles thus offer the reader a composite and broad perspective of feminism and the treatment of the female in Chinese literature As this remarkable new collection attests the voices of women in China have begun calling out loudly in ways that challenge prevalent views about the Chinese female persona This Woman's Heart Kathleen Berck-Parker,2014-09-26 This collection of poems spans fifty years in the life of the authors journey From her first poems written during her teen years to as recently as the summer of 2014 the poems reflect her life as a wife mother divorced woman grandmother friend deaconess and singer Most importantly however the poems reflect her relationship with Jesus Each poem reveals the heart of this woman who has known great joys as well as great sorrows The result of these experiences has been an ever deepening relationship with God and her gratefulness that He has given her the ability to express herself through poetry God has blessed her with a wonderful family and great friends and these people along with her faith have provided the inspiration for her poems Her greatest desire is that these words of truth and hope with some humor thrown in will give you a glimpse into her heart and in turn will touch the hearts of her readers and leave a legacy for her family and friends to enjoy

Films ... British Board of Film Censors, 1929 Traps for the Young Anthony Comstock, J. M. Buckley, 2009-01-01 The New York Society for the Suppression of Vice sounds like the satirical invention of a modern wag but it was a very real organization dedicated to policing public morality in the late 19th century Its founder Anthony Comstock was notorious as a crusader for decency and a strident advocate of censorship so strident in fact that George Bernard Shaw coined the term comstockery to refer to his zeal for the cause Shaw was one of Comstock's victims so were Theodore Dreiser and D H Lawrence In this rare 1883 work hard to find today in an elegant edition Comstock offers the warnings restraints guidance and sympathy that alone might save the youth from vileness and corruption and compulsively itemizes the traps that were seducing American youngsters into lives of debauchery and vice including pernicious literature gambling free love lewd art and more A hilarious artifact of 19th century scandal this inadvertently delightful book makes for wonderfully iniquitous reading today
