Biography of a Book traces the life of an iconic Australian literary work in the lead up to and for a century after its initial publication. Henry Lawson's 1896 collection While the Billy Boils by Paul Eggert follows Lawson's gradual development of a pared-back bush realism in the early 1890s as he struggled to forge a career writing short stories and sketches for the newspapers. Lawson's famous collection came out at a decisive moment for the development of a fully professional Australian literary publishing industry then in its infancy in Sydney. The volume's editing design and production were collaborative events that changed the feel and nature of Lawson's writing. He had to give ground on his texts and their sequencing. The collection went on to be reprinted and repackaged countless times. Its production and reception histories act like a geological cross-section revealing the contours of successive cultural formations in Australia. In unravelling the life of Lawson's classic work, Eggert's book historical approach challenges and clarifies established understandings of crucial moments in Australian literary history and of Lawson himself. BIOGRAPHICAL AND STATISTICAL BOOK OF REFERENCE FOR FACTS RELATING TO THE CLERGY AND THE CHURGE, 1868
