Fifty Places to Play Golf Before You Die Chris

Santella, 2012-11-16 A stunning in depth guide to fifty of the world's greatest golf courses selected by people deeply connected to the sport. There's an incredible similarity between the mechanics of a fly cast and the swing of a golf club. Perhaps that's why Chris Santella, author of Fifty Places to Fly Fish Before You Die, can be found on the links when he's not on the stream. With Fifty Places to Play Golf Before You Die, Santella gives voice to his other sporting passion, interviewing 50 people intimately connected to the sport about some of their favorite courses around the world. For both passionate golfers and armchair travelers, this gorgeous full color book presents the world's greatest golf venues, the personal favorites of renowned players, course architects, and other experts in the sport. From Ballyliffin, Ireland's northernmost course whose rumpled fairways wander along the North Sea in the shadows of Glashedy Rock to New Zealand's Cape Kidnappers perched atop dramatic cliffs some 500 feet above the ocean, the book's beautiful photographs capture the architecture, noteworthy holes, location, and ambiance that make these courses standouts for ardent golfers. A brief history of each course, an experiential account filled with local color from the person recommending the venue, and trip planning advice provide adventurous readers with all the information they need to chip and putt their way around the globe. A close up look at golf's top courses around the world recommended by such experts as Nick Faldo and Christie Kerr, pro golfers Pete Dye and Tom Doak, course architects, and Brian McCallen, editor and author. With breathtaking color photographs of each site, this is a great gift for avid golfers and armchair travelers alike.

Misfits on the Links Joel Zuckerman, 2006-03 It doesn't matter if your home course is like Augusta, Disgusta, or somewhere in between. Just wander the fairways of any of the more than 3,000 courses nationwide and you will quickly discover there are certain universal golfer types that can always be found. With its familiar and funny descriptions paired with clever caricatures, MISFITS ON THE LINKS captures 40 readily identifiable species of golfers. Some of these freaks of the fairway are charming with their clumsy and clueless ways. Others well not so much. This handy guide, which fits easily into your golf bag, will help you immediately identify these golfing freaks. The Mulligan Man drops balls indiscriminately, appearing to sow seeds like a latter day Johnny Appleseed. The Cart Gunner either slams brakes or guns the accelerator always at the top of your golf swing. The Club Chucker releases clubs in helicopter fashion, endangering those around him. With its dead on parodies, MISFITS ON THE LINKS makes a great year round gift for that golfing dad, and it could well be a staple in golf shops nationwide.
