Good S To Read For Young Adults:

Consumption and the World of Goods John Brewer, Roy Porter, 2013-06-17 The study of past society in terms of what it consumes rather than what it produces is relatively speaking a new development The focus on consumption changes the whole emphasis and structure of historical enquiry While human beings usually work within a single trade or industry as producers as say farmers or industrial workers as consumers they are active in many different markets or networks And while history written from a production viewpoint has by chance or design largely been centred on the work of men consumption history helps to restore women to the mainstream The history of consumption demands a wide range of skills It calls upon the methods and techniques of many other disciplines including archaeology sociology social and economic history anthropology and art criticism But it is not simply a melting pot of techniques and skills brought to bear on a past epoch Its objectives amount to a new description of a past culture in its totality as perceived through its patterns of consumption in goods and services Consumption and the World of Goods is the first of three volumes to examine history from this perspective and is a unique collaboration between twenty six leading subject specialists from Europe and North America The outcome is a new interpretation of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries one that shapes a new historical landscape based on the consumption of goods and services

Neuroplasticity and Rehabilitation Sarah A. Raskin, 2011-08-08 Brain plasticity is the focus of a growing body of research with significant implications for neurorehabilitation This state of the art volume explores ways in which brain injured individuals may be helped not only to compensate for their loss of cognitive abilities but also possibly to restore those abilities Expert contributors examine the extent to which damaged cortical regions can actually recover and resume previous functions as well as how intact regions are recruited to take on tasks once mediated by the damaged region Evidence based rehabilitation approaches are reviewed for a range of impairments and clinical populations including both children and adults

The Reading Lives of Teens Chin Ee Loh, 2024-11-04 In these changing times of global flows of media and technologies and reports of declining reading enjoyment researchers policymakers and educators need to engage anew with essential issues of what counts as reading what kinds of reading matter and how to support teen reading engagement in school and out of school settings Bringing together contributions from well known and emerging adolescent literacy researchers from different disciplinary perspectives this edited collection consolidates contemporary research on teens volitional print and digital reading whether in school or out of school contexts The first part of the book offers overviews of what teens are reading followed by chapters on community support on reading and new ways of researching teen reading With chapters from North America Europe Australia Asia and the Middle East the collection will offer multifaceted and complex insights into what how and why teens read in different contexts Reflection questions at the end of each chapter encourage readers to consider how the research can be applied in their own research policy and practice contexts This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers and educators who are invested in supporting adolescent engaged reading with evidence based policies and strategies

Travelling Goods, Travelling Moods Christian Huck, 2012-09 Looking at cultural appropriation from around the world this volume uses the field of cultural studies heavily influenced by both economics and sociology as a lens through which to view the paradigm of transcultural consumption The editors present a variety of consumptive phenomena including the introduction of Chinese foods to the United States Ford cars in Germany and American schoolbooks in the Philippines Rejecting the idea that these interactions were simply forms of Americanization Travelling Goods Travelling Moods fills a gap in consumer studies and enriches the debate about cultural transfer Trade Circular and Publishers' Bulletin ,1889 2013 Life Code #3: Vishnu SWAMI RAM
