Gospel Conversations How To Care Like Christ Equipping Biblical Counselors:

Gospel Conversations Robert W. Kelleman, 2015-09-01 How does a person learn to counsel others with the truth of God's Word? Bob Kelleman believes that the best way to learn counseling is by doing it by giving and receiving biblical counseling in the context of real raw Christian community. Gospel Conversations explores the four compass points of biblical counseling: Sustaining It's Normal to Hurt, Healing It's Possible to Hope, Reconciling It's Horrible to Sin but Wonderful to Be Forgiveness, Guiding It's Supernatural to Mature. These four compass points combine to equip readers to develop twenty-two ministry relational competencies the how-to of caring like Christ. This book serves as a practical training manual that can be used for lab and small group interaction. Gospel Conversations is the second volume in The Equipping Biblical Counselors Series, a comprehensive relational training curriculum for the local church that provides a model for equipping God's people to change lives with Christ's changeless truth. This two-volume series weaves together comprehensive biblical insight with compassionate Christian engagement.

Equipping Biblical Counselors Bob Kelleman, 2022-06-14 Equipping the body of Christ for personal ministry has been Bob's life work. This practical step-by-step manual is the mature fruit of that lifelong commitment. Paul David Tripp, author of Instruments in the Redeemer's Hand, Behind every spiritually fit church are leaders in the constant process of preparing other members to become counselors who nurture one another in ministry. But the success of this mission requires a practical, results-driven process for training the next generation to serve. In Equipping Biblical Counselors, pastor and counselor Bob Kelleman shares a proven strategy for envisioning, enlisting, equipping, and empowering new Christian counselors. A practical four-step process he has spent decades refining. With this book, Dr. Kelleman humbly comes alongside church leaders to help them assess their congregation's strengths and weaknesses, shepherd new leaders with confidence and wisdom, encourage the consistent spiritual growth God longs to see in his followers, invest where it matters most. Equipping Biblical Counselors reveals the steps ministry leaders can take to fulfill the calling in Ephesians 4:11-16 to embolden the body of Christ to continue changing lives with his unchanging truth.

Pastors and counselors need practical biblical help in order to connect their theological training to the reality of modern messy relationships. These how-to training manuals provide relevant, user-friendly equipping for pastors, counselors, lay leaders, educators, and students, enabling them to competently and compassionately relate God's Word to marriage and family life.

The Second Commandment Joey R. Peyton, 2024-02-07 In an increasingly broken world filled with hate and violence God's plan from the beginning was to save and restore the world to the glory for which he had created it This simple plan has not changed with the evolution of sin time or man's rejection of his creator Rather God's simple twofold plan of redemption included both a commandment to love the creator with all one's heart mind soul and strength and a commandment to love one's neighbor as one's self Neither commandment stands in isolation for one cannot fully love others without a consuming love for God and neither can one completely love God without a love for the neighbor created by God The answer to hate is love the answer to war is love the answer to violence is love and the answer to all of societal disfunction is love The answer is not a commandment to like God and others because one only likes others because of likeness Rather love is a choice A choice to love what you don't like A choice to love what you don't understand A choice to love until the God you love sets everything right in eternity

Gospel-Centered Counseling Robert W. Kelleman, 2014-10-21 Everyone talks about the personal ministry of the Word but how do we make one another ministry truly biblical Gospel Centered Counseling equips readers to change lives with Christ's changeless truth It does so by examining life's seven ultimate questions and then guiding readers on a journey that explores the biblical gospel centered narrative of The Word What is truth Where can I find answers The Trinity Who is God Can I know Him personally Creation Who am I What makes people tick Fall What went wrong Why do we do the things we do Redemption Can I change How do people change Glorification Where am I headed How does our future destiny impact our present reality Sanctification How can I help How can I change lives Bob Kelleman builds on the foundation of the written Word and provides a gospel centered resource for understanding people diagnosing problems and prescribing biblically based solutions Gospel Centered Counseling is the first volume in The Equipping Christian Counselors Series a comprehensive relational training curriculum for the local church that provides a model for equipping God's people to change lives with Christ's changeless truth This two volume series weaves together comprehensive biblical insight with compassionate Christian engagement

The Pastor's Book R. Kent Hughes,2015-10-14 Pastors are tasked with the incredibly demanding job of caring for the spiritual emotional and at times physical needs of their people While seminary is helpful preparation for many of the challenges pastors face there s far more to pastoral ministry than what can be covered in the classroom Designed as a reference guide for nearly every situation a pastor will face this comprehensive book by seasoned pastors Kent Hughes and Doug O Donnell is packed full of biblical wisdom and practical guidance related to the reality of pastoral ministry in the trenches From officiating weddings to conducting funerals to visiting the sick this book will equip pastors and church leaders with the knowledge they need to effectively minister to their flocks both within the walls of the church and beyond      Do Ask, Do Tell, Let's Talk Brad Hambrick,2016-03-01 Conversations among friends accomplish more than debates between opponents Conversations on controversial issues do not go well when the dialogue happens community to community or figurehead to figurehead Whether it's race religion or politics groups don't talk well with groups Too much is at stake when we feel like our words and actions speak for the collective whole Platforms and podiums will never accomplish what can only be done around dinner tables and in living rooms Two individuals from those respective groups are much more likely to forge a good relationship influencing one another in various ways Unfortunately an individual who listens well is often viewed by his or her collective compatriots as engaging in compromise at the group level representing each side fairly feels too much like agreement That is why the aim of this book is friendship Friendship is the level at which influence can be had because the dialogue does not seek to represent an agenda but to understand a person Friendship is what protects good points from becoming gotcha moments The subject for which this approach may be most vital for the modern church may be homosexuality and same sex attraction SSA Yet our approach has tended to be more polemical or political than pastoral and personal Churches have articulated their position on a conservative sexual ethic Churches have re-examined the key biblical texts that are challenged in defense of a progressive sexual ethic As important as these things are however they do not equip everyday Christians to develop meaningful friendships with people who experience same sex attraction or have embraced a gay identity In the absence of relationship our theology becomes theory Many Christians are seeing that the church's unwillingness to befriend people who experience SSA has blocked us from engaging with the subject of homosexuality on a person to person level We are reticent to engage relationships where it feels probable that there will be awkwardness Admittedly this book is not as neat as you might like for it to be Many tensions will be navigated maybe not all contradictions will be avoided However when it comes to being salt and light for the sake of the gospel it seems far better to choose possible messiness over guaranteed ineffectiveness That means we must realize that it is good for us to have conversations where we don't know what to say This is part of the essence of being a growing person When we're not having conversations that challenge us to think about new things we will commit sins either of pride or apathy We should always be praying that God will bring people into our lives who will provide the opportunity for us to ask new and important questions The desire of this book is to be a resource God uses to grow his people into excellent ambassador friends to their classmates colleagues and family members who experience SSA If this is what you want to do and be then God will be faithful to complete this work in you regardless of the strengths and weaknesses insights and oversights of this book Philippians 1:6 Thank you for taking this journey with me Brad Hambrick

Christ-Centered Biblical Counseling James MacDonald, Bob Kelleman, Stephen Viars, 2013-03-01 Christ-Centered Biblical Counseling is a comprehensive guide that will equip God's people to use biblical truth to change lives More than that this book will increase people's confidence in the sufficiency and relevancy of God's Word to address real life issues in a multitude of counseling situations Readers of this book will Understand clearly why they should embrace biblical counseling Be encouraged to trust God's Word to provide rich insight for living in the midst of even the most difficult challenges Enjoy the relevant pastoral and theological teaching they have come to appreciate from such
