AP Pacing Guide for Flipped Classrooms: Jan.–April 2021

Overview

Due to the challenges associated with hybrid and remote learning in 2020–21, a significant amount of the content and skills colleges are requiring for credit will likely need to be assigned to students as homework or independent learning. This guide allows students who are currently behind to complete all course topics from the course and exam description by May. This guide assumes students will complete approximately 30 minutes of AP Daily videos (~10 minutes each) and topic questions each day (in addition to other assignments teachers give them).

How to Implement

Here is guidance for implementing this pacing guide:

- Teachers should assign the AP Daily videos and topic questions listed below as student assignments each week.
- Using the reports generated by the topic questions, teachers should focus their limited, direct class time on the Learning Objectives where students need more help.
- If students are ahead of the pace indicated below, teachers will be able to incorporate additional days or weeks to spend more time on challenging topics, practicing course skills, or reviewing for the exam.

The Boundless Classroom Nathan Lang-Raad, James Vince Witty, 2022 A global pandemic hit our world and education has forever changed. But have your instructional practices changed? Teachers must now leverage technology to provide students with high quality teaching and learning experiences that transcend a traditional classroom's walls. This is a historic opportunity to abandon antiquated teaching practices and reimagine instruction in ways that boost learning outcomes and prepare students for living and working in the digital age. This book offers guidance for creating and sustaining rigorous and engaging blended learning solutions. Opening with lessons learned from the pandemic, the book addresses impacts on lesson design and delivery, student engagement, assessment, and teacher training and PD. The following chapters build on and address these experiences with each chapter featuring practical examples on how to implement effective blended instructions as well as examples from the field to illustrate effective approaches to blended and online instruction. The book is written with a focus on inclusive education, making it a valuable resource for both general and special educators. What's included in The Practical Guide to High Leverage Practices in Special Education: A focus on one HLP per chapter and descriptions of connected HLPs and how to use them for implementing featured EBPs. Classroom scenarios for both elementary and secondary classrooms. Tables of the crosswalks of connected HLPs and EBPs with resources for further learning. Students need to understand and express themselves in a language which can be the Mother Tongue only at the elementary level. Curriculum development is an important part of the education process, ensuring that classes at all levels from early childhood to post secondary are best designed to help students be successful in learning the material and gaining the skills needed to continue to advance Evaluation essentially is the provision of information for the sake of facilitating decision making at various stages of curriculum development This information may pertain to the program as a complete entity or only to some of its components Evaluation also implies the selection of criteria collection and analysis of data It includes obtaining information for use in judging the worth of a programme and procedure It is a comprehensive term and transcends standardized tests covering all means of ascertaining the results of construction A curriculum framework is an organized plan or set of standards or learning outcomes that defines the content to be learned in terms of clear definable standards of what the student should know and be able to do The supporters of learner centered Curriculum give importance to individual development and they want to organize the curriculum according to the needs and interest of learners there are fundamental differences in this approach and the subject centered design The curriculum framers for elementary schools should also associate the parents and specialists while developing the curriculum for elementary education The Political Classroom Diana E. Hess,Paula McAvoy,2014-11-13 WINNER 2016 Grawemeyer Award in Education Helping students develop their ability to deliberate political questions is an essential component of democratic education but introducing political issues into the classroom is pedagogically challenging and raises ethical dilemmas for teachers Diana E Hess and Paula McAvoy argue that teachers will make better professional judgments about these issues if they aim toward creating political classrooms which engage students in deliberations about questions that ask How should we live together Based on the findings from a large mixed method study about discussions of political issues within high school classrooms The Political Classroom presents in depth and engaging cases of teacher practice Paying particular attention to how political polarization and social inequality affect classroom dynamics Hess and McAvoy promote a coherent plan for providing students with a nonpartisan political education and for improving the quality of classroom deliberations Data Book of Social Studies Materials and Resources ,1980 American Government: Annotated teacher's ed ,1987 Handbook for Highly Effective Teams in a PLC at Work® William M. Noblit, 2015-03-17 This book is written for the Millennial Generation to educate them about what school desegregation was actually about the struggle over white domination in the United States The textbooks they read as high school students describe the heroic efforts of African Americans to achieve civil rights but do not describe who was denying them these rights white Americans The oral histories in this book reveal how individuals navigated efforts to achieve educational equity amidst efforts to reassert white domination These accounts counter the textbook history the Millennial Generation read which omits the massive white resistance to school desegregation the various ways whites used subterfuge to slow down and redirect school desegregation in what would more benefit whites and the concerted white political backlash that has been ensconced in educational policy and reform beginning with A Nation at Risk and continuing in No Child Left Behind That is educational policy as we know it is all about asserting white domination and not about educating children and thus the Millennial Generation is faced with undoing what their parents and grandparents have done
