Political Pioneer of the Press , Jodi L. Rightler-McDaniels, Lori Amber Roessner, 2018-07-31 Known most prominently as a daring anti lynching crusader Ida B Wells Barnett 1862 1931 worked tirelessly throughout her life as a political advocate for the rights of women minorities and members of the working class Despite her significance until the 1970s Wells Barnett s life career and legacy were relegated to the footnotes of history Beginning with the posthumously published autobiography edited and released by her daughter Alfreda in 1970 a handful of biographers and historians most notably Patricia Schechter Paula Giddings Mia Bay Gail Bederman and Jinx Broussard have begun to place the life of Wells Barnett within the context of the social cultural and political milieu of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This edited volume seeks to extend the discussions that they have cultivated over the last five decades and to provide insight into the communication strategies that the political advocate turned to throughout the course of her life as a social justice crusader In particular scholars such as Schechter Broussard and many more will weigh in on the full range of communication techniques from lecture circuits and public relations campaigns to investigative and advocacy journalism that Wells Barnett employed to combat racism and sexism and to promote social equity her dual career as a journalist and political agitator her advocacy efforts on an international national and local level her own failed political ambitions her role as a bridge and interloper in key social movements of the nineteenth and twentieth century her legacy in American culture and her potential to serve as a prism through which to educate others on how to address lingering forms of oppression in the twenty first century      Making National Heroes

Jacqueline Zhenru Lin, 2024-01-02 Making National Heroes is an ethnography of the making of national heroes in the commemoration of the Second World War in contemporary China Foregrounding the lived experience of men and women who participate in commemorative activities it theorises how masculinity and nationalism entangle in recollecting war memories Taking the feminist line of inquiry this anthropological study develops an approach to capture the centrality of making exemplars in the realisation of hegemonic masculinities It adds a gender perspective to studies on exemplarist moral theory and theorises exemplary men s cross cultural significance in defining masculinities Researchers in the fields of critical masculinity studies anthropology feminist methodology China studies and memory studies will be interested in this book I highly recommend this book about the grassroots redress movement that seeks to make national heroes of the largely forgotten KMT soldiers from pre 1949 times By way of exploring this intriguing topic Jacqueline Zhenru Lin gives a fascinating account of how nationalism and gender interact to produce exemplary masculinities in present day China Kam Louie University of Hong Kong Firmly grounded in anthropology but with historical and digital analyses woven throughout the author eloquently opens new avenues for reflection in Chinese masculinities research This important contribution draws new attention to links between masculinity nation and memory in a media saturated world Jamie Coates University of Sheffield      Literature David Damrosch, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Anders Pettersson, Theo D'haen, Bo Utas, Zhang canon or the place of a particular text within a tradition and from contemporary to traditional literature They include discussions of the development of prose fiction censorship and artistic freedom the role of westerners in codifying indigenous literatures the writing of literary history the development of literary criticism and indigenous aesthetics The Asianization of Christianity Jonathan D. James, 2024-11-05 Christianity has long been associated with the West often creating a disjunction affecting the understanding of the essence of the gospel The Asianization of Christianity is a clarion call by Asian Christian leaders for the gospel to be indigenized by encouraging practitioners to seriously engage with both the Bible and the cultures of Asia The book demonstrates that both the theology and the presentation of the gospel need to be framed according to the mindset of the respective Asian cultures so that the message of the Bible can be understood and accepted Case studies on evangelism church and training models from several Asian nations are explored Core issues such as culture communication and contextualization underpin the practical cases to give depth and clarity for the effective communication of the gospel
