international political agenda has been accompanied by added scrutiny as the international community seeks to meet the multi dimensional challenges of building a just and sustainable peace in societies ravaged by war Beyond the strictly operational dimension there is considerable ambiguity in the concepts and terminology used to discuss post conflict peacebuilding This ambiguity undermines efforts to agree on common understandings of how peace can be most effectively built thereby impeding swift coherent action Accordingly this lexicon aims to clarify and illuminate the multiple facets of post conflict peacebuilding by presenting its major themes and trends from an analytical perspective To this end the book opens with a general introduction on the concept of post conflict peacebuilding followed by twenty six essays on its key elements including capacity building conflict transformation reconciliation recovery rule of law security sector reform and transitional justice Written by international experts from a range of disciplines including political science and international relations international law economics and sociology these essays cover the whole spectrum of post conflict peacebuilding In reflecting a diversity of perspectives the lexicon sheds light on many different challenges associated with post conflict peacebuilding For each key concept a generic definition is proposed which is then expanded through discussion of three main areas the meaning and origin of the concept its content and essential components and its means of implementation including lessons learned from past practice

Building Environmental Peace Natalia Dalmer,2022-03-17 By analyzing the UN Environment Programme s UNEP s contribution to peacebuilding this book aims to show how international bureaucracies develop knowledge and thereby come to matter on the world stage Portraying UNEP as an open system it explores how a growing understanding within the Programme of how environmental degradation shapes insecurities and vice versa has motivated its work on peacebuilding The theoretical part of this book addresses knowledge open systems and knowledge creation It then presents a historical discussion of UNEP s development in an open system context Finally it investigates how knowledge emergence on the linkage between the environment conflicts and insecurities influenced UNEP s interests and its work on environmental peacebuilding

Conflict-Sensitive Conservation Carl Bruch,Geeta Batra,Anupam Anand,Shehla Chowdhury,Sierra Killian,2023-08-10 This book provides an empirically formulated foundation for conflict sensitive conservation a field in which the existing literature relies primarily on anecdotal evidence Seeking to better understand the impact of conflict on the implementation and outcomes of environmental projects the Global Environment Facility GEF Independent Evaluation Office and the Environmental Law Institute undertook an evaluation of GEF support to fragile and conflict affected contexts Following a qualitative and quantitative analysis of documents from more than 4 000 projects the research team discovered a statistically significant negative correlation between a country s Fragile States Index score and the implementation quality of environmental projects in that country In this book the evaluation and research team explain these groundbreaking findings in detail highlighting seven key case studies Afghanistan Albertine Rift Balkans Cambodia Colombia Lebanon and Mali Drawing upon additional research and interviews with GEF project implementation staff the volume illustrates the pathways through which conflict and fragility frequently impact environmental projects. It also examines how practitioners and sponsoring institutions can plan and implement their projects to avoid or mitigate these issues and find opportunities to promote peacebuilding through their environmental interventions. Examining data from 164 countries and territories, this innovative book will be of great interest to students and scholars of environmental management, conservation, international development, and the fast-growing field of environmental peacebuilding. It will also be a great resource for practitioners working in these important fields. Natural Resources and Human Rights Jérémie Gilbert, 2018. Examining the role human rights can play in the regulation of natural resource management, this book shines light on the duties of states and private actors when exploiting natural resources and the procedural rights of affected citizens.

From Conflict to Peacebuilding Richard A. Matthew, Oli Brown, United Nations Environment Programme, David Jensen, 2009. Today's changing security landscape requires a radical shift in the way the international community engages in conflict management. This report by the United Nations Environment Programme aims to review the latest knowledge and field experience on the linkages between environment, conflict, and peacebuilding and to discuss the ways in which these issues can be addressed and integrated in a more coherent and systematic way by the UN Member States and other stakeholders involved in peacebuilding interventions and conflict prevention.

Tigris and Euphrates Rivers: Their Environment from Headwaters to Mouth Laith A. Jawad, 2021-09-12. The system of the Tigris-Euphrates Rivers is one of the great river systems of southwestern Asia. It comprises the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers which follow roughly parallel courses through the heart of the Middle East. The lower portion of the region that they run through is known as Mesopotamia, was one of the cradles of civilisation. There are several environmental factors that govern the nature of the two rivers and shape the landscape: the two rivers running through; Geological events create rivers; climate; monitor the water supply; the surrounding land influences the vegetation and the physical and chemical features of water. The Tigris-Euphrates system runs through the territory of four countries: Iraq, Iran, Turkey, and Syria. Therefore, any scientific approach to the environment of these two rivers should include the natural history events in these countries. The book Tigris and Euphrates Rivers: Their Environment from Headwaters to Mouth will be divided into nine parts. These parts deal with the issues of the environment: the status of the flora and fauna; the abiotic aspects; ecology; hydrological regime of the two rivers; the biotic aspects; Water resources; stress of the environment; conservation issues. Since the book of Julian Rzoska Euphrates and Tigris: Mesopotamian Ecology and Destiny in 1980, no book or major reference has been published that includes between its cover the facts and information that the present book will present. Therefore, the importance of the present book falls in stating the present status of the environment of the two rivers and the comparison of their environment between now and that of 37 years ago as given by J. Rzoska 1980. The recent studies showed that there are a large number of natural and political events that happened within the last three decades in the area of the Tigris Euphrates river system that for sure have done a great change to the environment of the two rivers and consequently changing the biological and non biological resources of the two rivers This book will be a reference book to both Academic and students across the Middle East in different disciplines of knowledge to use in their researches on Tigris Euphrates river system The scholars interested in this area will use this book as a guide to compare this freshwater system with other areas in Asia and the world
