Removing Tax Barriers to China's Belt and Road Initiative Michael Lang, Jeffrey Owens, 2018-11-27

Since its announcement in 2013, the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI), also known as the New Silk Road, has gradually gained international recognition. The project requires not only extensive investment in infrastructure and transportation but also an acceleration of the internationalization of multinationals and supply chains in Belt and Road countries. The project will hopefully lead governments and businesses in countries along the Belt and Road to compete, adopt best practices and improve transparency. The BRI marks a national push by China to increase economic links to Southeast Asia, Central Asia, Russia, the Baltic region, Central and Eastern Europe, Africa and Latin America, which will have major consequences for the way that tax systems interact.

Emerging from the research conducted by the WU Global Tax Policy Center in cooperation with several Chinese universities, this book offers fourteen policy-relevant research papers prepared by international experts on the following issues:

- The New Silk Road: Will Tax Be a Facilitator or a Barrier?
- Neo-BEPS: China's Prescription for International Tax Reform
- Embodying the Rationality of the Belt: International Taxation Coordination under China's Belt and Road Strategy
