Contemporary Perspectives Through Action Research Across Educational Disciplines Nancy T. Nasr, Jill Alexa Perry, 2023-03-01 The mission of the Action Research Across Educational Disciplines series is to present targeted volumes of action research findings from a wide variety of educational settings Specifically this series aims to highlight the issues that commonly impact practitioners counselors administrators and other stakeholders in education The rationale for such a series comes from the continually evolving educational landscape resulting from changing student demographics and societal needs To face the contemporary issues that surface as a result of this changing educational landscape educators must prepare for and lead through the change with an intent on overcoming these issues through improvements to their daily practice As many educators are left without tools or resources to make a stronger impact in their educational contexts this series will serve as a mentor text that provides examples of studies undertaken by practitioners using action research to improve their practice As a result Action Research Across Educational Disciplines will present the tools and findings associated with action research to educators across the broad field of K 12 education and beyond wishing to improve and transform their practice This first volume of the Action Research Across Educational Disciplines series presents action research findings from a wide variety of K 12 disciplinary settings In doing so the first volume of this series aims to highlight the issues that commonly impact practitioners in K 12 STEM English Social Science and even Art classrooms and illustrate the solutions proposed in these contexts to improve both educator practice and student achievement Through the use of action research methodologies to address such issues volume one of this series offers a resource for improving educational practice across diverse K 12 contexts School Library Makerspaces in Action Heather Moorefield-Lang,2018-03-05 Maker learning spaces in schools and public libraries are made real through the narratives of professional librarians around the world comprising the collaborative activities experiences and perspectives of librarians as they have implemented makerspaces for students of all ages School Library Makerspaces in Action is for any librarian looking for inspiration for their own makerspaces hackerspaces fablabs or DIY locations and how to use these spaces in libraries and educational settings Contributions from authors around the world address the needs of most all readers including how to provide the staff training necessary for a successful makerspace Each chapter is written from an author s personal experience and with only a little fine tuning and imagination many of these ideas can be used throughout all levels disciplines and subjects in K 12 education and carry over into higher education The successes and optimism shared in this collection will inspire librarians and educators to think positively about how to implement maker learning locations train staff and use makerspaces in their libraries and classrooms to promote and share new ideas 21st Century Skills

Development Through Inquiry-Based Learning Samuel Kai Wah Chu,Rebecca B. Reynolds,Nicole J. Tavares,Michele Notari,Celina Wing Yi Lee,2016-09-21 This book presents innovative instructional interventions designed to support inquiry project based learning as an approach to equip students with 21st century skills Instructional techniques include collaborative team based teaching social constructivist game design and game play and productive uses of social media such as wikis and other online communication affordances The book will be of interest to researchers seeking a summary of recent empirical studies in the inquiry project based learning domain that employ new technologies as constructive media for student synthesis and creation The book also bridges the gap between empirical works and a range of national and international level educational standards frameworks such as the P21 the OECD framework AASL Standards for the 21st Century Learner and the Common Core State Standards in the US Of particular interest to education practitioners the book offers detailed descriptions of inquiry project based learning interventions that can be directly reproduced in today s schools Further the book provides research driven guidelines for the evaluation of student inquiry project based learning Lastly it offers education policymakers insight into establishing anchors and spaces for applying inquiry project based learning opportunities for youth today in the context of existing and current education reform efforts The aim of this book is to support education leaders practitioners and researchers efforts in advancing inspiring and motivating student learning through transformative social constructivist inquiry based knowledge building with information technologies We propose that preparing students with inquiry mindsets and dispositions can promote greater agency critical thinking and resourcefulness qualities needed for addressing the complex societal challenges they may face Evaluating Research for

Evidence-Based Nursing Practice Jacqueline Fawcett,Joan Garity,2008-08-22 Where is the evidence in a nursing research study What is the evidence How good is the evidence And how is it relevant to providing evidence based nursing care Ensure that students can meet the AACN s American Association of Colleges of Nursing goal of identifying valid research findings and using them to determine if they are providing care that is supported by evidence Studies in Science Education in the Asia-Pacific Region May Hung Cheng,Alister Jones,Cathy Buntting,2017-09-13 Consistent with international trends there is an active pursuit of more engaging science education in the Asia Pacific region The aim of this book is to bring together some examples of research being undertaken at a range of levels from studies of curriculum and assessment tools to classroom case studies and investigations into models of teacher professional learning and development While neither a comprehensive nor definitive representation of the work that is being carried out in the region the contributions from China Hong Kong Taiwan Korea Japan Singapore Australia and New Zealand give a taste of some of the issues being explored and the hopes that researchers have of positively influencing the types of science education experienced by school students The purpose of this book is therefore to share contextual information related to science education in the Asia Pacific region as well as offering insights for conducting studies in this region and outlining possible questions for further investigation In addition we anticipate that the specific resources and strategies introduced in this book will provide a useful reference for curriculum developers and science educators when they design school science curricula and science both pre service and in service teacher education programmes The first section of the book examines features of science learners and learning and includes studies investigating the processes associated with science conceptual learning scientific inquiry model construction and students attitudes towards science The second section focuses on teachers and teaching It discusses some more innovative teaching approaches adopted in the region including the use of group work inquiry based instruction developing scientific literacy and the use of questions and analogies The third section reports on initiatives related to assessments and curriculum reform including initiatives associated with school based assessment formative assessment strategies and teacher support accompanying curriculum reform The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781315717678> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
