Growing Missionaries Biblically R. Zarwulugbo Liberty, 2012 For missionaries in the twenty first century change is necessary in order for them to continue to be strong and viable Growing Missionaries Biblically takes a fresh look at Christian missions and proposes a comprehensive biblical missionary training program for short and longterm missions Its objective is to produce an effective cross cultural ministry for Africa and with some modifications globally The goal is to provide a postimperial post colonial model for training missionaries by looking to biblical guidance on the subject Author Dr R Zarwulugbo Liberty is a native of Liberia Africa with biblical theological and practical insights for prospective and seasoned missionaries and their supporters The information he provides can successfully launch and sustain these missionaries in the course of their mission work In order to accomplish his goals he proposes the use of bicultural missionaries A bicultural missionary is one who has studied both his own culture and the culture of the people to be served This missionary will not equate his or her culture with Christianity and will know and understand the practices of the culture he or she serves that can easily be incorporated and assimilated into Christianity Growing Missionaries Biblically proposes a vital curriculum for missionary preparation for cross cultural missionary service A GODLY LEADER ON TRIAL : A Fresh Look at Nehemiah R. Saunders, Gregory Mathias, Edward L. Smither, 2024-08-13 From Cognitive Teaching to Connected Learning Given the landscape of global Christianity and the variety of approaches to theological and missiological training today how do we equip the global church for the mission of God Should mission organizations or sending churches conduct their own in house training What is the role of Bible colleges and seminaries in equipping for mission today What about informal approaches to theological and ministry training Equipping for Global Mission offers insights from seasoned scholars and practitioners Beginning with theological convictions and practical reflections our authors make a case for what equipping for mission could look like in the present global church Case studies from India China North America and Britain further challenge the reader to reflect on this critical issue The full scope of educating for mission is far too broad of a task for any single organization This is why the contributors serve the church so well by enlarging a much needed conversation This book is a clarion call to all who care about missions and the global church Join world leaders in reshaping missions education today by using the practical and strategic wisdom in these pages Missions Gailyn Van Rheenen,2014-07-22 In a rapidly changing world the central missionary vision of the church must be constantly renewed lest its foundations become lost in the confusion of change or its practices trapped in missionary models of the past In this second edition of Missions long time missionary Gailyn Van Rheenen revises and updates his classic text on Christian missions laying sound theological and strategic foundations for the missionary of today and tomorrow Van Rheenen helps renew the missionary vision by discussing areas such as The history of Christian mission and how it affects where we are today Spiritual formation for God's mission The missionary cycle Cross cultural communication The character and calling of missionaries Types of missionaries Church maturation Selecting mission fields The role of money in missions Four levels of involvement in missions But Missions is more than blackboard theory Written by a long time missionary it carries the conviction and insights of one who has lived his subject Accessible to students practitioners and laypeople alike Missions provides a primary go to resource for understanding and becoming involved in the dynamic activity of world missions Mission from the Perspective of the Other Tim Noble,2018-08-30 Christian mission involves God the missionary and the other the recipient of mission This book argues for the centrality of this other in the practice of mission The other as child of God is presented not as an empty vessel waiting to be filled but as the one who draws near to the missionary Both are sent by God and together they enter into the journey towards God Drawing on Scripture contemporary missiology and phenomenology the book argues for the importance of this often neglected other and demonstrates through historical case studies involving Saint Ignatius of Loyola William Carey and Saint Innocent of Alaska that the recognition of the gift of the other has always been present in Christian mission and can continue to inspire The Changing Face of World Missions (Encountering Mission) Michael Pocock,Gailyn Van Rheenen,Douglas McConnell,2005-10-01 The dramatic changes that have taken place both in global society and in the church have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century These trends include the rise of postmodernism the spiritual decline in the West and the advance of the gospel in the rest of the world and the impact of technology on society and missions The Changing Face of World Missions is for the mission minded church leader or lay person who wants to understand these trends Each chapter identifies and evaluates a trend examines it in light of Scripture and proposes a practical response Important terms are defined and sidebars help readers think through the issues on their own A Time for Mission Samuel Escobar,2013-07-14 Christian mission in the twenty first century has become the responsibility of a global church The heart of mission is the drive to cross geographical cultural and social barriers in order to share the good news of Jesus Christ with all peoples Drawing on his involvement in missionary work over many years

Samuel Escobar explores how the church spreads the Christian faith God's Word forms the foundation for his reflections while he uses insights from theological and historical studies as well as from the social sciences to gain a clearer understanding of the church's missionary calling His stimulating and challenging analysis contributes significantly to a global evangelical dialogue on mission today and in the future Teaching Mission in a Global Context Patricia Lloyd-Sidle, Bonnie Sue Lewis, 2001-01-01 This book is a collection of eleven essays about the practice of mission The first section titled Feet First is about the way in which Christian practices many of them taken for granted shape mission The next section deals with the issue of transformation in mission work and the related concerns of mutuality solidarity and marginality The third section takes up the situation of the relation of Christianity to other religions Finally the last four essays take up spirituality as an inward and outward event doing mission in the context of North America and finally the development of a new theological identity based on the image of God as a missionary God The Missionary Spirit Ireland, Jerry M., 2021-08-25 Argues for a return to the early emphasis in Pentecostal missiology on the need for cross cultural evangelism as opposed to the current trend focusing on a broader more amorphous understanding of the field Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers, 2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal's history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there Christian Mission Edward L. Smither, 2019-03-06 A deeper understanding of the grand history of mission leads to a faithful expression of God's mission today From the beginning God's mission has been carried out by people sent around the world From Abraham to Jesus the thread that weaves its way throughout Scripture is a God who sends his people across the world proclaiming his kingdom As the world has evolved Christian mission continues to be a foundational tradition in the church In this one volume textbook Edward Smither weaves together a comprehensive history of Christian mission from the apostles to the modern church In each era he focuses on the people sent by God to the ends of the earth while also describing the cultural context they encountered

Smither highlights the continuity and development across thousands of years of global mission

Atlantic Childhoods in Global Contexts Audra Diptee, David Trotman, 2018-02-02 Atlantic Childhoods in Global Contexts explores childhood and youth in the Global South The term childhood often conjures images of innocence vulnerability and the need for protection but this book suggests that in colonial contexts these images need to be re examined In fact as the articles in this collection demonstrate deviance culpability and a presumed autonomy were the more popular notions of childhood in the colonial context These notions were held by the various actors in the colonial drama not only colonial officials but interestingly enough often by the colonized people themselves Furthermore traditional notions of childhood as a period of total dependency are challenged in this collection as the various authors explore the ways in which children were pro active agents who shaped notions of childhood and therefore our understanding of the history of childhood This collection provides in depth analysis and offers new perspectives on how children were imagined and constructed both legally and informally in the colonial context The contributions cover a broad geographic range that spans the Caribbean Latin America Africa and India Each of the authors explore the ways in which the interplay of Atlantic and Global influences shaped young people s experiences as well as the discourses that were used to articulate concerns about youth The themes explored in this collection include the pathologization of childhood juvenile delinquency cultural creativity and the use of child labour The book ends with an interview by Sara Austin of World Vision Canada who discusses the ways in which the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child neglected to include the voices of children until 2014 This book was originally published as a special issue of Atlantic Studies Global Currents

Mission as Accompaniment Brian E. Konkol, 2017-06-15 Mechanistic dehumanization occurs when human beings are objectified and exploited as a means to an end comparable to expendable components of a machine This misconception of human value is a source and sustainer of overproduction an excess of consumption and the pursuit of unrestrained economic growth damaging both people and the planet Can the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America ELCA Global Mission respond to mechanistic dehumanization through mission as accompaniment The notion of mission as accompaniment which emerges from liberation theology and development methodology promotes solidarity among church companions that embodies interdependence and mutuality Grounded in the New Testament expression of koinonia Mission as Accompaniment is affirmed in this study as a suitable foundation to counteract mechanistic dehumanization Through this research with the University of KwaZulu Natal South Africa Theology and Development program Brian E Konkol incorporates economics ecology anthropology and postcolonial missiology He maintains that two particular elements the African concept of Ubuntu and an Olive Agenda when integrated into mission as accompaniment will equip the ELCA Global Mission with an advocacy driven trajectory in response to mechanistic dehumanization

Gitau, Mark A. Lamport, 2024-04-18 One of the important contemporary but unexplored themes for Christianity in Africa today is its ongoing connections to a broader Christian and non Christian world This is quite apart from the idea of mission connections or reverse mission from Africa to elsewhere or any mission themed global connection In much existing scholarship Africa seems to only have recently been drawn into the orbit of global relations but there is a long standing relationship with the wider world people linking from different regions at different times for varied reasons This volume explores the theme of two thousand years of connections and how the global sensibility has shaped Christianity on the continent for two thousand years Introducing Christian Mission Today Michael W. Goheen, 2014-07-14 Michael Goheen gives us a full scale introduction to mission studies today in its biblical theological and historical dimensions Goheen covers the full horizon of major issues in mission including its global urban and holistic contexts This text shows how the missional church encounters the pluralism of Western culture and global religions Hybridizing Mission Peter T. Lee, 2022-09-27 This qualitative study explores intercultural social dynamics among international Christian workers who are part of multicultural teams engaged in Christian ministries in a North African country It seeks to understand these workers lived realities at intersections of multiple cultural flows Ethnographic methods were used to collect and analyze data and forty nine international Christian workers were interviewed The findings of this study indicate that intercultural Christian workers go through complex intercultural social processes interwoven in the fabric of their everyday life These processes are mediated by their social experiences in the local North African context and their multicultural teams resulting in significant changes in their personal dispositions and social behaviors Based on these findings a working concept of diasporic habitus is developed and the practice of double discourses of culture is further examined This research suggests that some existing missiological concepts need to be revisited and recommends further interdisciplinary conversations involving cultural anthropology and sub fields in psychology about the changes that happen to people in intercultural missions It also calls for a reflexive approach to missiological research that incorporates awareness of one's situatedness and the lasting impact of historical entanglements on contemporary intercultural relations Christianity in Sub-Saharan Africa Kenneth R. Ross, 2017-05-18 This comprehensive reference volume covers every country in Sub Saharan Africa offering reliable demographic information and original interpretative essays by indigenous scholars and practitioners It maps patterns of growth and decline assesses major traditions and movements analyses key themes and examines current trends
