Growing Musicians Bridget Sweet, 2015-12-23 Growing Musicians Teaching Music in Middle School and Beyond focuses on teaching adolescents within the context of a music classroom. It considers the impact of music education on adolescents as they transition from child to adult as well as encourages music educators to mindfully examine their own teaching practice.

EBOOK: Qualitative Research Design for Software Users Silvana di Gregorio, Judith Davidson, 2009-01-16 Di Gregorio the second part uses case studies to demonstrate the issues and the design framework introduced in the first part. These chapters are supported by numerous screenshots illustrating the software under discussion. The last part contains practical appendices to help readers apply the framework introduced to their own research. Di Gregorio and Davidson introduce The notion of the E Project or electronic project as a genre. A framework for representing the research design of a project in any QDAS package. Ethical considerations when working in QDAS. A variety of contextual issues including national and organizational differences. Eight real research projects of a variety of designs and using different QDAS: ATLAS ti MAXqda NVIVO and XSight. Separate checklists for ATLAS ti MAXqda NVIVO and XSight providing practical help in applying the research design framework presented in the book. Uniquely the book examines issues related to both academic and non academic uses of QDAS. Qualitative Research Design for Software Users is a useful reference for upper level students, academics and researchers across a range of disciplines.

Making of Them Nick Duffell,2018-03-06 In the 21st century British society is still shaped by a private education system devised to gentrify the Victorian middle classes and produce gentlemen to run the Empire Yet it is not on the political agenda it is rarely the subject of public debate and we remain blind to its psychological implications Can we afford to go on ignoring this issue Will we continue to sacrifice the welfare of our children to satisfy our antiquated social aspirations Why do the British still send their children away to boarding school What are the attitudes underpinning this practice which mystifies foreigners What does it mean for a child to be sent away from home and immediately have to survive in an unfamiliar custom ridden world without love family life or privacy Will it be the making of them or will it be a trauma from which he or she may never recover In this thought provoking book now a classic psychotherapist psychohistorian and former boarder Nick Duffell reveals the bewildering dilemmas confronting the boarding school child and discovers a dark secret at the heart of the British psyche Drawing on three decades of working with Boarding School Survivors he describes the process towards living beyond strategic survival and offers pointers towards a philosophy of education that honours the needs and the intelligence of the natural child
