

The first of these is the fact that the majority of the population of the world is now living in urban areas.
 This is a result of the process of urbanization, which has been going on since the beginning of the 20th century. The second factor is the increasing demand for food and raw materials, which has led to the expansion of agriculture and mining. The third factor is the growing concern for the environment, which has led to the development of environmental protection laws and regulations.

These three factors are the main reasons for the rapid growth of the world population. The first factor is the fact that the majority of the
