

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would certainly produce satellites that were better. They could improve delivery of aid.	They were worried about the loss of U.S. technology when John F. Kennedy became president. They also worried about Soviet satellites in Germany, Poland, Czechoslovakia, and France.
3. Would anyone challenge U.S. power?	Not really.	They didn't want to create enemies, but independence was important.
4. Would the U.S. achieve other goals besides better relations?	Yes. The governments could be stronger. There'd be no communist victory.	They knew the public was skeptical and would not take a deal without the Soviets.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these other goals. Would that be better?

Why or why not? Write your answer below.

Answer: Because, if the governments the satellites were created the Soviet U.S. relationship was not just trust and friendship.
