

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and missiles? (Why or why not?)	They would certainly produce jobs, but they would also have to build a delivery system.	They might develop better in space technology, but the U.S. already was doing this. Space programs might, planned under the control of General Douglas MacArthur.
3. Would anyone challenge either side?	Not really.	Others might be tempted to join the competition and also challenge.
4. Would the two nations gain more control over the oceans, air, and space?	Yes, the governments could be stronger. There is no common enemy.	Yes, because people are interested and would not take a backseat to the Soviets.

2. Suppose the agreement simply is not being signed. Why?

There (may) be technical difficulties.

Technology and mathematics may be too new.

Political reasons. The governments are too afraid to give control.

Other possible explanations are that the rockets are too expensive.
