

1. A

Objective: Chapter 1, Objective 3

Page: 14

Rationale: The sudden increase in acceleration produces posterior displacement of the occupants and possible hyperextension of the cervical spine if the headrest is not properly adjusted. The potential for cervical-spine injuries is great.

2. D

Objective: Chapter 2, Objective 6

Page: 34

Rationale: The purpose of the initial assessment is to prioritize the patient and to identify all immediately life-threatening conditions. The information gathered is used to make decisions about critical interventions and time of transport.

3. C

Page: 68

Rationale: Manipulating the thyroid cartilage can help bring the vocal cords into view during endotracheal intubation. This is called external laryngeal manipulation (ELM). The movement is usually pressing the thyroid cartilage backward against the esophagus and then upward and slightly to the patient's right side.

4. B

Objective: Chapter 6, Objective 9

Page: 136

Rationale: The pericardial sac is an inelastic membrane that surrounds the heart. If blood collects rapidly between the heart and pericardium from a cardiac injury, the ventricles of the heart will be compressed, making the heart less able to refill, and cardiac output falls.

5. A

Rationale: This is an example of internal, uncontrolled hemorrhage. Administer sufficient normal saline to maintain peripheral perfusion, following local or EMS agency medical direction policies. Maintaining peripheral perfusion is generally defined as giving enough fluid—usually in boluses—to return a peripheral pulse, such as a radial pulse.

International Business Blunders Densil A. Williams, 2019-02-19 This book will provide empirical evidence of blunders committed by firms from small developing countries that operate in developed country markets. It will identify lessons that managers who are looking to do business in international markets can learn in order to lessen the mistakes in markets that are psychically distant. Strategic Planning for Nonprofit Organizations Michael Allison, Jude Kaye, 2015-04-06 The bestselling guide to nonprofit planning with proven practical advice. Strategic Planning for Nonprofit Organizations describes a proven method for creating an effective, organized, actionable strategy tailored to the unique needs of the nonprofit organization. Now in its third edition, this bestselling manual contains new information about the value of plans, specific guidance toward business planning and additional information about the strategic plan document itself. Real world case studies illustrate different planning and implementation scenarios and techniques and the companion website offers templates, tools and worksheets that streamline the process. The book provides expert insight describing common misperceptions and pitfalls to avoid, helping readers craft a strategic plan that adheres to the core values of the organization. A well honed strategic plan helps nonprofit managers set priorities and acquire and allocate the resources necessary to achieve their goals. It also provides a framework for handling challenges and keeps the focus on the organization's priorities. Strategic Planning for Nonprofit Organizations is an excellent source of guidance for managers at nonprofits of every size and budget, helping readers to identify the reasons for planning and gather information from internal and external stakeholders. Assess the current situation accurately and agree on priorities, mission, values and vision. Prioritize goals and objectives for the plan and develop a detailed implementation strategy. Evaluate and monitor a changing environment, updating roles, goals and parameters as needed. Different organizations have different needs, processes, resources and priorities. The one thing they have in common is the need for a no nonsense approach to planning with practical guidance and a customizable framework. Strategic Planning for Nonprofit Organizations takes the fear out of planning with expert guidance on the nonprofit's most vital management activity. Neonatal Neural Rescue A.
