Haunted Media Jeffrey Sconce, 2000 Examines the repeated association of new electronic media with spiritual phenomena from the telegraph in the late 19th century to television Media Technologies and Posthuman Intimacy Jan Stasienko, 2021-12-16 Constructing a theory of intimacy describing processes occurring between a human subject and information creations Jan Stasienko shows in what way and in what phases that relationship is built and what its nature is He discusses technologies and genres related to the construction of a new television message teleprompter interactive television forms appearing both in the analogue and digital eras composition of the film image and specificity of cinematic technologies peep show hybrid animation digital visual effects Also new media technologies and genres will be discussed for example aspects relating to computer games and Web portals making video materials available This diversity is prompted by the desire to show that the building of intimacy protocols is not the domain of the digital era and on the other hand that the posthumanism of media apparatus is a wide ranging problem i e the area encompasses various vehicles findable throughout various historical periods Horrors of a Voice (object a) Tristram Adams, 2024-07-11 This book reframes the Lacanian object a voice as a horrific register of alterity The object gaze has received as it does in Jacques Lacan's work more commentary than voice Yet recently voice has garnered interest from multiple disciplines The book intervenes in the Slovenian school's commentary of the object voice in terms of two questions audition and corporeality This intervention synthesizes psychoanalysis with recent theorizing of the horror of philosophy In this intervention the object a voice is argued to resonate in lacunae epistemological voids that evoke horror in the subject Biological and evolutionary perspectives on voice genre horror film and literature music videos close readings of Freudian and Lacanian case studies and textual analysis of ancient philosophy texts all contribute to an elucidation of the horrors of the object a voice Vox Exo concepts Bernd Herzogenrath, 2022-12-01 This book foregrounds that English monolingualism reduces both our linguistic and conceptual resources presenting concepts from the cultures of 4 continents and 26 languages Concepts seem to work best when created in the interspace between theory and praxis and between philosophy art and science Deleuze himself had generated many concepts in this encounter between philosophy and non philosophy including his ideas of affects and percepts of becoming the stutter the rhizome movement image and time image the rhizome What happens if instead of other disciplines we take other cultures other languages other philosophies Does not the focus on English as a hegemonic language of academic discourse deny us a plethora of possibilities of possible Denkfiguren of possible concepts Each contributor explores ideas that are key to thinking in their language about sound and silence voice and image living and thinking the self and the world while simultaneously addressing the issue of translation Each chapter demonstrates that translation itself is a way of invention rather than just a rendering of concepts from one system in terms of another This collection acts as a travelogue The journey does not follow a particular trajectory some countries are not on the map some are visited twice So there is no claim to completeness involved here it is rather an invitation to answer to the call Technologies for Intuition Alaina Lemon, 2018 Cold War paranoia can only partly describe or explain the 20th century dreams of telepathy The nightmare shades of mind control and crowd frenzy have long alternated with the pastels of love and collective effervescence Both extremes materialized over time along tangled circuits of wars events and interactions staged across borders since at least the 19th century The Cold War and its fences fed fascination with the workings and the failures of contact and communication Opposed sides accused each other of jamming media and spinning propaganda even while they mirrored fantasies of connection This book contrasts and connects Russian and American channels and means to check channels with special attention to intersections of the telepathic with the theatrical It theorizes links between historically layered struggles over technologies for intuition and dominant models of communication commonsense or theoretical It demonstrates that theories resting on models of individual sincerity and of dyadic communication warp understandings of the USSR and Russia and thus of the USA as well It proposes that attention to the means of making and checking contact that is to the phatic functions in language offers a way out of the impasses and paradoxes of paranoia Provided by publisher Player vs. Monster Jaroslav Svelch, 2023-02-07 An ode to the gruesome game characters we love to beat from the monsters of D D to the mutants of The Last of Us and what they tell us about ourselves Since the early days of video games monsters have played pivotal roles as dangers to be avoided level bosses to be defeated or targets to be destroyed for extra points But why is the figure of the monster so important in gaming and how have video games come to shape our culture's conceptions of monstrosity To answer these questions Player vs Monster explores the past half century of monsters in games from the dragons of early tabletop role playing games and the pixelated aliens of Space Invaders to the malformed mutants of The Last of Us and the bizarre beasts of Bloodborne and reveals the common threads among them Covering examples from aliens to zombies Jaroslav Svelch explores the art of monster design and traces its influences from mythology visual arts popular culture and tabletop role playing games At the same time he shows that video games follow the Cold War era notion of clearly defined calculable enemies portraying monsters as figures that are irredeemably evil yet invariably vulnerable to defeat He explains the appeal of such simplistic video game monsters but also explores how the medium could evolve to present more nuanced depictions of monstrosity Ghost Writing in Contemporary American Fiction David Coughlan, 2016-11-05 This book examines representations of the specter in American twentieth and twenty first century fiction David Coughlan's innovative structure has chapters on Paul Auster Don DeLillo Toni Morrison Marilynne Robinson and Philip Roth alternating with shorter sections detailing the significance of the ghost in the philosophy of Jacques Derrida particularly within the context of his 1993 text Specters of Marx Together these accounts of phantoms shadows haunts spirit the death sentence and hospitality provide a compelling theoretical context in which to read contemporary US literature Ghost Writing in Contemporary American Fiction argues at every stage that there is no self no relation to the other no love

no home no mourning no future no trace of life without the return of the specter that is without ghost writing Virginia Woolf and the Age of Listening | Virginia Woolf à l'ère de l'écoute Adèle Cassigneul, Anne-Marie Smith-Di

Biasio, 2025-04-24 Listening was the spirit of the age as the invention of psychoanalysis and of radio marked the turn of the twentieth century Virginia Woolf and the Age of Listening brings together contributions which tune into that acoustic quality at once present in Woolf's time in her texts and in the readings which here echo those very listening techniques Indeed the listening mind as a reading surface for the receptivity and reconstruction of sound waves embodies a shift which informs the thinking of many chapters in this volume In their attention to listeners in the text and to those who make up the work of reception in both English and French these readings consider Woolf's oeuvre as an echo chamber reverberating with intertextual echoes in a multi-layered representational network They form a constellation of answers to the call of the Age of Listening Guy Maddin's My Winnipeg Darren Sean Wershler-Henry, 2010-01-01 Guy Maddin is Canada's most iconoclastic filmmaker Through his reinvention of half-forgotten film genres his remobilization of abandoned techniques from the early history of cinema and his unique editing style Maddin has created a critically successful body of work that looks like nothing else in Canadian film My Winnipeg 2008 which Roger Ebert called one of the ten best films of the first decade of the twenty-first century has consolidated Maddin's international reputation In this sixth volume of the Canadian Cinema series Darren Wershler argues that Maddin's use of techniques and media that fall outside of the normal repertoire of contemporary cinema require us to re-examine what we think we know about the documentary genre and even film itself Through an exploration of My Winnipeg's major thematic concerns memory the cultural archive and how people and objects circulate through the space of the city Wershler contends that the result is a film that is psychologically and affectively true without being historically accurate Informal Settlements of the Global South Gihan Karunaratne, 2023-06-01

Bringing together case studies ranging across the globe including the US-Mexico borderlands the Calais encampment in France refugee camps in Kenya Uganda and Bangladesh and contested informal enclaves and communities in the cities of India China Brazil Nigeria and South Africa this book challenges current ways of thinking about the governance of human settling mobility and placemaking Together the 15 essays question the validity of the conventional hegemonic divisions of Global North vs Global South and formal vs informal in terms of geographic presence transborder performances and the ideological interdependence of Northern and Southern spaces spatial practices and the uniformity of authoritative enforcements The book whose authors themselves come from all over the world uses Global South as a methodological apparatus to ask the Southern question of settling and unsettling across the globe Crucially the studies reveal the sentiments resourcefulness and the agency of those positioned by the powerful within the dichotomies of formal informal legitimate illegal privileged marginalized etc who are traditionally identified within the dominant development discourse as mere numbers or designated by intervening institutions as helpless recipients By focussing on hitherto invisible events and untold stories of adaptation negotiation and contestation by people and their communities this volume of essays takes the ongoing North South debate in new directions and opens up to the reader's fresh areas of enquiry It will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture planning politics and sociology as well as built environment professionals October, 1976

Translation in a Global Market, 2001 What is the impact of globalization on texts and media To what extent do artists and writers consciously or unconsciously build translatability into their work Translation in a Global Market addresses these questions as well as the problems that may arise from a global market in cultural and aesthetic forms For instance what does a global market that increasingly rewards translation friendly works that cross linguistic and cultural boundaries mean for publishing in non Western languages What are the politics of an emergent internationalized aesthetic that privileges metropolitan over vernacular genres And why do specific cultural objects arrive and circulate in various public spheres The essays in this volume critically investigate these questions without assuming that these objects were destined to arrive in those public spheres Translation in a Global Market assembles contributors from several academic disciplines as well as visual artists for a closer look at the formation of an international canon and at the kinds of texts that gain international visibility The essays urge a shift in emphasis from global literacy which implies the use of a standard language and a preference for translatability in texts to transnational literacy which places minority and diaspora literatures in direct conversation with each other rather than with Paris London or New York Contributors Dina Al Kassim Emily Apter Timothy Brennan Elena Climent Maryse Condé Michael Eng Renée Green Rainer Ganahl Sarah M Hudgins Michael North Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Haunted media Jeffrey Sconce, 2007 A historical analysis of the relation between communication technologies discourses of modernity and metaphysical preoccupations Haunted Media Jeffrey Sconce, 2007 A historical
