Help! I Want My Church to Grow David Ripley, 2008-02 Myth or fact If we build a nice enough church people will come to worship We don't need to plan for worship It will happen naturally The major ministry of the church is inside the church building It's OK if children's Sabbath school classrooms are overcrowded If we can get a top name evangelist to speak at our church we'd see great things happen Myths All myths If you believe any of these statements are true you aren't the only one Many people have held to these and other common myths that stunt church growth In Help I Want My Church to Grow Pastor David Ripley exposes the 31 most widespread misconceptions that keep churches from growing into vibrant communities Drawing from more than 20 years of pastoral experience Ripley identifies pitfalls and offers principles that will attract people to your church Each section of the book includes discussion questions making it invaluable for small group studies or leadership meetings A must read for church members and leaders this book will introduce you to myth busting ideas that will expand God's kingdom right in your very own church

Preaching and Professing Ralph C. Wood, 2009-01-30 Testifies to the presence of God as both our post earthly hope and our present world existence These thought provoking sermons by Ralph Wood a layman who has taught religion and literature for many years seek to till new soil in the fertile field of Christian faith and life They draw on a wide range of reading not only in Christian theology but also in both classical and contemporary literature and culture And they also mine Wood's own professorial and personal experience in dealing with both the old and the young amid the chances and changes of life Wood squarely engages the American culture of death by wrestling with such vexing questions as sexuality and marriage war and peace abortion racial injustice and abuse of the elderly By grounding his homilies in specific times places and quandaries Wood demonstrates that Christianity remains a vigorous set of doctrines and morals precisely as preaching and ethics give shape to our worship and living in the here and now Focusing not so much on our getting to heaven Wood's Preaching and Professing shows concretely how the gospel gets heaven into us

Avoiding a Parental Freak-Out Michael Bozack, 2020-09-03 Students across America have learned that the transition from high school to college is one of the toughest assignments they have ever received And for a Christian student achieving success in a secular university is even harder Did you know that Only 32% of high school seniors graduate with the skills they need for college Only 20% of entering college students have the basic quantitative skills necessary to compare ticket prices or calculate the cost of food By the end of their freshman year 30% of college students drop out The four year graduation rate for students attending public colleges and universities is currently 33% The six year rate is 58% More than 85% of college students feel overwhelmed and 51% report that things are hopeless Christian students are not immune to the bad statistics They should be our best college students but many are falling prey to the same forces that derail secular students What is a parent to do Help is here In this book we give Christian parents the straight scoop on how to prepare your kids for college Far more Christian students end up at secular colleges and universities than Christian colleges but there are few resources to help parents We show you what to do what to avoid what critical information you need and which battles to fight We offer tons of talking points to share with your kids And best we save you sleep frustration money heartaches pints of Baskin Robbins double chocolate and hours of watching the Hallmark Channel to chill out Related keywords Christian college planning parent college planning

Crockett Jr., 2015-03-02 What would Jesus do if He visited your college campus Walk around Read books and drink coffee Or would He preach the Gospel As Christians we are called to bring the truth of God and everything the Lord has taught us to the people around us At times this may be difficult because of our lack of biblical teaching on evangelism This book is designed to show people how simple it is to fulfill the Great Commission even in their daily lives As an individual is led by the Holy Spirit power and deliverance are brought forth in mighty ways and the fire of God is displayed Evangelism does not have to be a burdensome act rather an enjoyable adventure with Jesus Whether you are a new believer or a world renowned evangelist the teachings in this book are simple yet profound Everything from tracts to open air preaching is discussed while referencing the scriptures A successful soldier has proven techniques for battle and so should we if we are to be successful evangelists Not only for college students this book can be used by anyone that so desires to spread the Good News of God's salvation By the grace of God may we all listen and obey the words of the apostle Paul and do the work of an evangelist America's Centenarians, 1963 America's Centenarians United States. Social Security Administration, 1963 True Latter-Day Saints' Herald, 1902 The family magazine of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints The Story of Narrative Preaching Mike Graves, 2015-03-02 Forty years ago the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical Unfortunately they were sometimes tedious too Narrative preaching aimed to fix that advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture Preaching could be like the parables of Jesus intriguing and compelling The Story of Narrative Preaching is the story of seven students who are enrolled in Professor Freeman's preaching course Once a new trend narrative preaching is now older than most of them As Professor Freeman notes two things went wrong with narrative styles over time the church became biblically and theologically illiterate and the promised stress on experience didn't always measure up to the weight of the gospel Readers are invited to sit in on the class to reflect on the expositional nature of preaching and to experience the stories of some modern storytellers Flannery O'Connor Alice Walker and others to see what they might teach us about narratives of depth In the end we discover what may be the most important word in preaching
