

Silver Linings

Frightened woman was I then
At thirty-two my life began.
A journey not one I would choose
My life I knew that I could lose.

A cancer growing in my breast
Would make me fight
We cannot rest!

We cut away where cancer lives and drugs are flowing, death it gives To cells that grow they search, destroy
To take me from my little boys

The battle's won we cry with joy
As cancer dies I play with toys!

My children keep the mom they love
I see silver linings in clouds above

A second fight begins again
Four years of peace we laugh and grin
We fight with rays and cut away
What tries to kill, destroy and maim

This second battle also won, we cry with joy
We walk and run
In forests deep and mountains high
With silver linings in the sky

A third war starts, five years of rest
Are quickly ended do what's best!
We cut away remaining breast
The drugs do flow, another test
To see how strong, our spirits soar
I scream, I cry, I fight and roar

The battle's won, we cry with joy
My children now are men-not boys!

Its twenty years of life that I
Can see reflected in the eyes
Of loved ones who have prayed and cried
And chose the treatments- I survived!

My children grown, grandchildren too,
A loving man who loves me thru
He sees my scars as battles won
These silver linings on clouds with sun
Reflecting love, and light- I've won!
