Bayne,Whitney Gegg-Harrison,Dev Crasta,Alessandra DiMauro,2024-04-05 Offering a multidisciplinary exploration of flow and the often nebulous ways it is conceptualized and operationalized in writing pedagogy this book addresses a critical gap in writing studies Bringing together practice based and scholarly perceptions it outlines the key features and definitions of flow and identifies pedagogical approaches and opportunities for classroom instruction Incorporating perspectives from disciplines including classical rhetoric composition studies cognitive science and linguistics this book provides a diverse overview of the literature on flow in writing pedagogy It includes two instructional voice based and rhetorical grammar based activities that outline how to recognize and improve flow in writing In doing so the book also provides clear examples of how to create an inclusive writing pedagogy that incorporates sensory and analytical perspectives to help readers and writers experience flow and meet their writing goals As an exploration of flow instruction as it currently stands and might stand in the future this book will be of interest to students and instructors in the field of academic professional and creative writing studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license An Index to Current Literature Sampson Low,1862 The Reader ,1864 Reader's Guide to American History Peter J. Parish,2013-06-17 There are so many books on so many aspects of the history of the United States offering such a wide variety of interpretations that students teachers scholars and librarians often need help and advice on how to find what they want The Reader s Guide to American History is designed to meet that need by adopting a new and constructive approach to the appreciation of this rich historiography Each of the 600 entries on topics in political social and economic history describes and evaluates some 6 to 12 books on the topic providing guidance to the reader on everything from broad surveys and interpretive works to specialized monographs The entries are devoted to events and individuals as well as broader themes and are written by a team of well over 200 contributors all scholars of American history Upsetting Composition Commonplaces Ian Barnard,2014-10-15 In Upsetting Composition Commonplaces Ian Barnard argues that composition still retains the bulk of instructional practices that were used in the decades before poststructuralist theory discredited them While acknowledging that some of the foundational insights of poststructuralist theory can be difficult to translate to the classroom Barnard upends several especially intransigent tenets that continue to influence the teaching of writing and how students are encouraged to understand writing Using six major principles of writing classrooms and textbooks clarity intent voice ethnography audience and objectivity Barnard looks at the implications of poststructuralist theory for pedagogy While suggesting some evocative poststructuralist pedagogical practices the author focuses on diagnosing the fault lines of composition s refusal of poststructuralism rather than on providing solutions in the form of teaching templates Upsetting Composition Commonplaces addresses the need to more effectively engage in poststructuralist concepts in composition in an accessible and engaging voice that will advance the conversation about relations between the theory and teaching of writing Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie,2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1855
