School To Work David Stern, Neal Finkelstein, James Stone, John Latting, Carolyn Dornsife, 2012-10-12 An in depth investigation into career related programmes in American secondary schools and two year further education colleges is given in this book In addition to reviewing evidence on the effectiveness of vocational coursework the authors analyse programmes involving students who study and work simultaneously including co operative education youth apprenticeship and school based enterprise Chapters deal with the problems encountered in the school to work transition the preparation necessary not only for this transition but for changes encountered when jobs end abruptly and issues covered include combining school

based and work based learning and teaching and linking secondary with post secondary education Research on programmes involving students simultaneously working and at school including non school supervised employment is also covered as is co operative education which places students in jobs related to their fields of study The traditional elements of post school education and training are discussed together with an investigation into newer approaches including career academics and career magnet schools and programmes bridging secondary and post secondary education Additionally selected studies of programmes for out of school youth are reviewed To conclude the authors consider new school to work systems and whether specially designed programmes for the non college bound students would be stigmatised as second best or if an alternative programme could maintain an option for students to attend four year colleges and universities the latter making the design and operation of school to work systems more difficult Of interest to administrators teachers policy makers analysts and employers the findings in this book will shed light on the viability of new school to work initiatives currently being implemented in the UK Europe and USA Deciphering Chinese School Leadership Allan Walker, Haiyan Qian, 2017-10-23 With existing educational leadership models and theories being predominantly western influenced this book aims to provide more insight into school leadership in China It pioneers building research and practice informed knowledge and unravels the complexities that characterize the scholarship context and practices of school leadership School leadership in China is presented through four sub purposes investigating how Chinese school leadership is conceptualized in the international and Chinese literature exploring the shifting context within which Chinese school leaders enact their leadership and examining key policies that have shaped the practice of leader development extending the understandings about the complexities of work lives of Chinese school leaders and further locating indigenous understandings of Chinese school leadership in the political and socio cultural context of contemporary China and the theoretical and conceptual context of international school leadership This text will be particularly useful to international education researchers with focus on educational leadership comparative education education policy and education in China
