Learning On Other Peoples Kids Becoming A Teach For America Teacher Pb:

Learning on Other People's Kids Barbara Torre Veltri, 2010-05-01 This work captures the voices of TFA novices who offer candid accounts of their experiences in Becoming Teach For America Teachers Previously unanswered questions are addressed Why do recent college graduates apply to Teach For America How are they recruited trained and hired How do they learn the culture s of the community schools grade level curriculum and children they teach Is there a culture of the TFA organization What recommendations do they offer to TFA donors policy makers future corps members and the public Woven into this book are perspectives from mentors who worked alongside TFAers administrators who hired them corporate C E O s who supported them and policies both local and national that privileged TFA over non TFA teachers Finally a compelling series of eyewitness narratives introduces each chapter s theme documented from the author s own Notes from the Field These accounts offer rich descriptive vignettes that present the challenges TFAers faced as they occurred Schools reflect the multitiered and often non level playing field that comprises America s educational landscape Learning on Other People s Kids Becoming a Teach For America Teacher provides readers a glimpse into the corps member experience in a rare ethnographic account

Teachers Without Borders? Alyssa Hadley Dunn, 2013-03-22 EDUCATION Urban Robert D. Barr, William H. Parrett, 2011-11-22 Examine critical studies on high performing high poverty schools to identify how schools can fulfill the mission of educating all students to proficiency especially students at risk The authors compiled the most important research on how low performing high poverty schools achieved radical improvements in learning for their most vulnerable students and also identified eight best practices breaking them down into specific strategies often using real life examples from successful schools

White Kids Margaret A. Hagerman, 2020-02-01 Winner 2019 William J Goode Book Award given by the Family Section of the American Sociological Association Finalist 2019 C Wright Mills Award given by the Society for the Study of Social Problems Riveting stories of how affluent white children learn about race American kids are living in a world of ongoing public debates about race daily displays of racial injustice and for some an increased awareness surrounding diversity and inclusion In this heated context sociologist Margaret A Hagerman zeroes in on affluent white kids to observe how they make sense of privilege unequal educational opportunities and police violence In fascinating detail Hagerman considers the role that they and their families play in the reproduction of racism and racial inequality in America White Kids based on two years of research involving in depth interviews with white kids and their families is a clear eyed and sometimes shocking account of how white kids learn about race In doing so this book explores questions such as How do white kids learn about race when they grow up in families that do not talk openly about race or acknowledge its impact and What about children growing up in families with parents who consider themselves to be anti racist Featuring the actual voices of young affluent white kids and what they think about race racism inequality and privilege White Kids illuminates how white racial socialization is much more dynamic complex and varied than previously recognized It is a process that stretches beyond white parents explicit conversations with their white children and includes not only the choices parents make about neighborhoods schools peer groups extracurricular activities and media but also the choices made by the kids themselves By interviewing kids who are growing up in different racial contexts from racially segregated to meaningfully integrated and from politically progressive to conservative this important book documents key differences in the outcomes of white racial socialization across families And by observing families in their everyday lives this book explores the extent to which white families even those with anti racist intentions reproduce and reinforce the forms of inequality they say they reject

Resources in Education ,1994 Kill It to Save It Corey Dolgon,2017-04-05 For decades now American voters have been convinced to support public policies that only benefit those in power But how do the powerful extract consent from citizens whose own self interest and collective well being are constantly denied And why do so many Americans seem to have given up on quality public education on safe food and safe streets on living wages even on democracy itself Kill It to Save It lays bare the hypocrisy of contemporary US political discourse documenting the historical and theoretical trajectory of capitalism s triumph over democracy Tackling the interconnected issues of globalization neoliberalism and declining public institutions Corey Dolgon argues that American citizens now accept reform policies that destroy the public sector seemingly in the public interest and a political culture that embraces what Stephen Colbert calls truthiness a willingness to agree to arguments that feel right in the gut regardless of fancy science or messy facts In a narrative that stretches from the post Vietnam War era to the present parade of political reality TV and debates over Black Lives Matter Dolgon dismantles US common sense cultural discourse His original alternative account reveals that this ongoing crisis in US policy will not cease until a critical mass of American citizens recognize what has been lost and in whose interest Working Mother ,2000-11 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Teaching and Learning on Screen Mark Readman,2016-11-09 What stories are told about teaching and learning on TV and in film And how do these stories reflect refract and construct myths anxieties and pleasures about teaching and learning This collection looks at how pedagogy is represented on screen and how TV programs and films translate pedagogic ideas into stories and relationships International in scope with case studies and analysis from the UK US Australia Turkey and Brazil the book adopts a critical stance in relation to the ways in which theories of learning and myths about education are mobilized on screen Teaching and Learning on Screen Mediated Pedagogies provides a stimulating addition to the field of media and cultural studies while also promoting debate about particular pedagogic models and strategies that will contribute to the professional development of educators and those involved in teacher education Australian Books in Print 1999 K G Saur Books,1999-04 Excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage American Reference Books Annual This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 123 000 in print books published in Australia You ll also find brief profiles of more than 12 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade
