Leaves Of Faith The World Of Jewish Living Volume :

Leaves of Faith Aharon Lichtenstein, 2003 Where its predecessor dwelt primarily upon the content mode and practitioners of Torah study this volume focuses upon issues some theoretical others pragmatic some current others timeless which concern the practice and implementation of Torah It opens with an inquiry into whether and to what extent Halakhah recognizes the validity and value of an ethic which in some sense lies beyond its scope This is followed by two essays focused upon events in Israel but of more general significance as well which deal with the character and bounds of Jewish polity Tangentially related is the subject of the next chapter straddling the communal and the personal regarding the parameters of tolerance The next several chapters treat more purely personal topics response to suffering Shabbat prayer and shemittah They are followed by discussions of aspects of the sensitive areas of conversion abortion and the Israeli chief rabbinate commingled with two essays more sociologically oriented on Jewish self identification and communal service and an exchange concerning Baruch Goldstein These are in turn followed by two chapters focused upon modern or centrist Orthodoxy particularly The volume concludes with a series of responses to major questions posed in various symposia in which participants were asked descriptively and prescriptively both to evaluate the current Jewish scene and to chart a suggested course for its future direction

A Jewish Public Theology Abraham Unger, 2018-10-15 A Jewish Public Theology draws from Halakhah Jewish law to address some of the most searing current policy issues Abraham Unger examines how Jewish tradition speaks to globalization and its attendant political and economic cleavages Classical Jewish thought sits on a perch outside of the defining parameters of the global political conversation and as such cannot be pigeon holed as populist leftist or rightist Judaism was born in antiquity and therefore predates by millennia these current ideological biases That intellectual distance both due to the long arc of Jewish history and outsider minority status as a tradition allows for a critical distance Unger explores how the Jewish tradition compels the living out of a public policy framework through the forging of equitable communities using arguments that go beyond political orthodoxies In this socially fragile era the possibility of that message offers a hopeful discourse of significant possibility for all humankind

Reconsidering Israel-Diaspora

Relations Eliezer Ben-Rafael, Judit Bokser Liwerant, Yosef Gorny, 2014-06-19 In this era of globalization Jewish diversity is marked more than ever by transnational expansion of competing movements and local influences on specific conditions One factor that still makes Jewish communities one is the common reference to Israel Today however differentiations and discrepancies in identification and behavior generate plurality and ambiguities about Israel Diaspora relationships Moreover the Judeophobia now rife in Europe and beyond as well as the spread of the Palestinian cause as a civil religion make Israel the world's Jew among nations This weighs heavily on community relations despite Israel's active presence in the diaspora In this context the contributions to this volume focus on Jewish peoplehood religiosity and ethnicity gender and generation Israelophobia and world Jewry and debate the perspectives that are most pertinent to confront the question how far is the

Miller, 2024-02-20 In Samson Raphael Hirsch's Religious Universalism and the German Jewish Quest for Emancipation Moshe Miller argues that nineteenth century German Jews of all persuasions actively sought acceptance within German society and aspired to achieve full emancipation from the many legal strictures on their status as citizens and residents But where non Orthodox Jews sought a large measure of cultural assimilation Orthodox Jews were content with more delimited acculturation However they were no less enthusiastic about achieving emancipation and acceptance in German society There was one issue though which was seen by non Jewish critics of emancipation as a barrier to granting civic rights to Jews namely the alleged tribalism of the Jewish ethic and the supposedly Orthodox notion of Jews as the Chosen People These charges could not go unanswered and in the writings of Rabbi Samson Raphael Hirsch 1808 1888 a leading thinker of the Orthodox camp they did not Hirsch stressed the universalism of the Jewish ethic and the humanistic concern for the welfare of all mankind which he believed was one of the core teachings of Judaism His colleagues in the German Orthodox rabbinate largely concurred with Hirsch's assessment This account places Hirsch's views in their historical context and provides a detailed account of his attitude toward non Jews and the Christianity practiced by the vast majority of nineteenth century Europeans Living in Both Worlds Lawrence Grossman, 2025-09-30 Modern Orthodoxy is a form of American Judaism that affirms the traditional tenets and practices of Orthodox Judaism while at the same time maintaining an openness to contemporary cultural and intellectual developments Beginning in the post World War II era Living in Both Worlds shows how a fledgling Modern Orthodoxy carved out an identity separate and apart from unacculturated ultra Orthodoxy to its right and Conservative Judaism to its left and follows its development through the first quarter of the twenty first century as new divisive issues such as feminism LGBTQ rights and the spread of academic biblical scholarship challenged its coherence and a rejuvenated ultra Orthodoxy contested its religious legitimacy The MacArthur New Testament Commentary Set of 31 volumes John F MacArthur, 2011-02-21 This set includes the entire collection of the MacArthur New Testament Commentary series Matthew 1 7 Matthew 8 15 Matthew 16 23 Matthew 24 28 Luke 1 5 Luke 6 10 Luke 11 17 Luke 18 24 John 1 11 John 12 21 Acts 1 12 Acts 13 28 Romans 1 8 Romans 9 16 1 Corinthians 2 Corinthians Galatians Ephesians Philippians Colossians Philemon 1 2 Thessalonians 1 Timothy 2 Timothy Titus Hebrews James 1 Peter 2 Peter Jude 1 3 John Revelation 1 11 and Revelation 12 22 The MacArthur New Testament Commentary series continues to be one of today's top selling commentary series These commentaries from respected Bible scholar and preacher John MacArthur give a verse by verse analysis in context and provide points of application for passages illuminating the biblical text in practical and relevant ways The MacArthur New Testament Commentary Set of 30 volumes John MacArthur, 2011-02-21 This set includes the entire collection of the MacArthur New Testament Commentary series Matthew 1 7 Matthew 8 15 Matthew 16 23 Matthew 24 28 Luke 1 5 Luke 6 10 Luke 11 17
