Leaving Afghanistan Behind:

Leaving Terrorism Behind Tore Bjorgo, John G. Horgan, 2008-11-28 This new edited volume expands our understanding of the processes by which individuals and groups disengage from terrorism While there has been a growing awareness of the need to understand and prevent processes of radicalization into terrorism disengagement and deradicalization from terrorism have long been neglected areas in research on terrorism This book uses empirical data to explore how and why individuals and groups disengage from terrorism and what can be done to facilitate it The work also presents a series of case studies of disengagement programmes from Colombia northern Europe Italy Yemen Saudi Arabia Indonesia Singapore and Malaysia comparing and assessing their various strengths and weaknesses In light of the lessons learned from these cases this book describes and explains the potential for new developments in counter terrorism This book will be of great interest to all students of terrorism studies war and conflict studies international security and politics in general as well as professionals in the field of counter terrorism What Wars Leave Behind J. Malcolm Garcia, 2014-06-24 They bear labels instead of names noncombatant unintended victim collateral damage Theirs are the blurred faces and forms seen in news footage shot from a moving vehicle And when soldiers media and profiteers move on to the next conflict they stay behind to cope amid the wreckage They have stories to tell to anyone who will pause long enough to hear them In What Wars Leave Behind J Malcolm Garcia reveals the people and pain behind the statistics He writes about impoverished families scraping by in Cairo's city of the dead ordinary Syrians pretending all is well as shells explode around them and others caught in conflicts that rage long after the cameramen have packed up and gone away Garcia describes his travels in some of the world's hotspots in Central Asia the Middle East and Africa In a series of personal travel essays that read like short stories he exposes the endless messiness of war and the failings of good intentions and he traces their impact on the lives of natives in Afghanistan Pakistan Egypt Kosovo Chad and Syria He discovers amazing resilience among people who must struggle just to survive each day Garcia gives readers the sort of gritty detail learned from immersing himself in other cultures He eats the food drinks the tea and endures the oppressive heat These are the stories of how a middle class guy from the Midwest with a social work degree learned to experience and embrace the cultures of Third World countries in conflict and lived to tell the tale

A Piece of My Heart I Leave Behind Diana Janse, 2019-06-20 The year before Diana Janse went to Kabul she was a desk officer at the European Security Department in Stockholm It was an unglamorous and stressful job that entailed working long hours at her desk writing instructions for the government's negotiators at the European Union delegation in Brussels For the first time since her dream of becoming a diplomat was born in a shabby student dorm on the outskirts of Moscow in the early 1990s she doubted her choice of career This was not what she had had in mind But then what did she have in mind When a new position at the embassy in Islamabad Pakistan with placement in Kabul Afghanistan was posted for the third time it caught her eye An escape route had opened up She applied and left shortly thereafter I Leave A Piece of My Heart Behind is part personal diary part travelogue and part an account of working as a diplomat in a war torn and staggeringly poor country It is a proclamation of love and fascination but also of frustration from a Westerner struggling to understand the world of politics and diplomacy in a culture entirely different from her own while at the same time defending her choices to her family and friends back home

Leaving Faith Behind Fiyaz Mughal, Aliyah Saleem, 2020-04-28 Leaving Faith Behind gives voice to women and men who were born into Muslim families and communities but who have made the decision to leave Islam or to dissent against some of the most significant aspects of Islamic doctrine Aliyah who realized as a young woman that she did not have to live by rigid rules and concepts that suffocated her true self Hassan who became a practicing Muslim in his teens but for whom doubts led him to leave the faith in his fifties Jimmy banished from his home and family when he was discovered to be gay Marwa who keeps secret from her community the fact that she can no longer practice a religion that she believes degrades and denies basic rights to women Aisha for whom the journey from belief to disbelief was a gradual process involving personal challenge and confrontations with friends and family As increasing numbers of people in Western society choose to turn away from organized religion this book allows the stories of some of them to be heard the reasons for their decisions to leave the challenges of leaving and the effects on their lives and relationships It also captures portraits of life and culture within Muslim communities in our fast changing world and how they are reacting and responding to migration secularization more inclusive attitudes to gender and sexuality and other trends of modern society

Trauma James Cole, 2011-10-11 In this pulse pounding medical memoir trauma surgeon James Cole takes readers straight into the ER where anything can and does happen TRAUMA is Dr Cole s harrowing account of his life spent in the ER and on the battlegrounds fighting to save lives In addition to his gripping stories of treating victims of gunshot wounds stabbings attempted suicides flesh eating bacteria car crashes industrial accidents murder and war the book also covers the years during Cole s residency training when he was faced with 120 hour work weeks excessive sleep deprivation and the pressures of having to manage people dying of traumatic injury often with little support Unlike the authors of other medical memoirs Cole trained to be a surgeon in the military and served as a physician member of a Marine Corps reconnaissance unit United States Special Operations Command USSOCOM and on a Navy Reserve SEAL team From treating war casualties in Afghanistan and Iraq to his experiences as a civilian trauma surgeon treating alcoholics drug addicts criminals and the mentally deranged TRAUMA is an intense look at one man s commitment to his country and to those most desperately in need of aid Development Co-operation Report 2018 Joining Forces to Leave No One Behind OECD,2018-12-11 When Member States of the United Nations approved the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in 2015 they agreed that the Sustainable Development Goals and Targets should be met for all nations and peoples and for all segments of society Governments and stakeholders negotiating the 2030

F-14 Tomcat Units of Operation Enduring Freedom Tony Holmes,2012-11-20 An insightful study of the use of this iconic modern fast jet in support of Special Operation Forces and other roles The first hand accounts and photographs from private collections makes this a unique book The legendary F 14 Tomcat was the weapon of choice to strike against the enemies of the United States in the wake of the September 11 attacks with F 14s flying thousands of bombing missions on al Qaeda and Taliban positions Written by aviation expert Tony Holmes this book explores the F 14 pilots and aircraft involved in Operation Enduring Freedom with insights into the tactical approach and strategic aims provided by officers Exclusive access to mission reports combat diaries full colour artwork and photographs from the author s collection reveal the battle experiences of the most famous modern fast jet Leave No Man Behind Tony Brooks,Bob Welch,2021-08-10 A story of courage perseverance and patriotism behind the 75th Ranger Regiment s rescue mission following one of the deadliest Special Ops incidents in Afghanistan a grueling search for twelve Navy SEAL casualties and eight downed Night Stalkers but just one lone survivor On June 28th 2005 a four man Navy SEAL reconnaissance team under Operation Red Wings was ambushed in northeastern Afghanistan as depicted in the book and film Lone Survivor A quick reaction force was dispatched Turbine 33 carrying eight Navy SEALs and eight members of the 160th Special Operations Aviation Regiment was struck by a rocket propelled grenade careening the dual rotor Chinook toward the rugged peak of Sawtalo Sar The result was the single deadliest incident in Special Operations history at the time Commanders called on the largest element of US Special Forces the 75th Ranger Regiment The rescue mission Operation Red Wings II Author Tony Brooks gives a first hand account of the daring recovery of Turbine 33 and the subsequent search for the remaining compromised Navy SEAL recon team one of whom was Marcus Luttrell the lone survivor The Rangers were up against lack of intel treacherous terrain violent weather and an enemy that was raised to fight Tony Brooks lived and many of his fellow Rangers died by the axiom Leave No Man Behind He is the first to tell the story other books and films have omitted one of overcoming overwhelming odds to accomplish a mission to bring every American soldier home City of Soldiers Kate Fearon,2012-01-10 A deeply affecting memoir and a unique contribution to our understanding of Afghanistan Behind the headlines the strategies the surges what is life really like in Afghanistan What is it like to live and work there as a civilian on state building with its people fighting the Taliban with flip charts and pens not guns In her account of sixteen months in the capital of Helmand province Lashkar Gah working for the Provincial Reconstruction Team Kate Fearon records everyday life on the frontline Amid the violence she unearths extraordinary stories of how ordinary Afghans live and what they think both inside and outside the walls of military bases From the thrills and risks of getting there to exploring Helmand and its history this book follows the author's daily life as she gets to know the people behind the war She learns Pashto visits the Districts meets the US Marines observes elections and evades suspected suicide bombers She describes working with the tribal Elders on informal justice and policing issues and building local democracy with them She also listens to the musings of young men on marriage and nightclubs discovers what Afghan women really think of their burqas and discusses poppy growing pornography forbidden love notes drinking and dancing Tragic and touching but also wryly observed City of Soldiers tells of the camaraderie and courage of those working under extreme conditions foreigners and locals civilians and military alike It evokes the despair and the guilt that comes with targeted political murders in response to the process of democratization Kate Fearon explains how the key driver for Afghans is pragmatism their overriding goal survival and reveals how women and men assert themselves in a seemingly impossibly restrictive culture with humor and hope

A Woman Among Warlords Malalai Joya, 2009-10-20 Malalai Joya has been called the bravest woman in Afghanistan At a constitutional assembly in Kabul in 2003 she stood up and denounced her country's powerful NATO backed warlords She was twenty five years old Two years later she became the youngest person elected to Afghanistan's new Parliament In 2007 she was suspended from Parliament for her persistent criticism of the warlords and drug barons and their cronies She has survived four assassination attempts to date is accompanied at all times by armed guards and sleeps only in safe houses Often compared to democratic leaders such as Burma's Aung San Suu Kyi this extraordinary young woman was raised in the refugee camps of Iran and Pakistan Inspired in part by her father's activism Malalai became a teacher in secret girls schools holding classes in a series of basements She hid her books under her burqa so the Taliban couldn't find them She also helped establish a free medical clinic and orphanage in her impoverished home province of Farah The endless wars of Afghanistan have created a generation of children without parents Like so many others who have lost people they care about Malalai lost one of her orphans when the girl's family members sold her into marriage While many have talked about the serious plight of women in Afghanistan Malalai Joya takes us inside the country and shows us the desperate day to day situations these remarkable people face at every turn She recounts some of the many acts of rebellion that are helping to change the country the women who bravely take to the streets in peaceful protest against their oppression the men who step forward and claim I am her mahram so the fundamentalists won't punish a woman for walking alone and the families that give their basements as classrooms for female students A controversial political figure in one of the most dangerous places on earth Malalai Joya is a hero for our times a young woman who refused to be silent a young woman committed to making a difference in the world no matter the cost

Securing the Future of Afghanistan Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee, 2013-04-10 The Committee's report focuses on the planned withdrawal of combat troops at the end of 2014 and the transfer of responsibility for security to the Afghan National Security Forces It also examines the progress towards a secure and stable Afghanistan within the wider region including Pakistan and the plans by the UK NATO and other allies for a smooth transition of responsibility for security to the Afghan Government and the ANSF Securing the future of Afghanistan requires the concerted efforts of all the Afghan people regional neighbours in particular Pakistan the USA NATO and other coalition partners In the process of establishing a peaceful and functioning Afghanistan the Committee calls for evidence of i At least the start of an Afghan led peace settlement with the insurgency ii Open and free elections iii An appropriately trained and equipped ANSF with continuing financial support iii A strong judicial system which protects the human rights of all Afghans iv Economic development aid to continue in support of the well being and safety of all sections of society v Effective measures to tackle corruption drug production and the drug trade The MoD needs to work with international partners and the ANSF to identify ways of meeting significant gaps in necessary capabilities such as helicopters and close air support and medical care from 2015 The Defence Committee concludes that at the end of UK operations the best the UK will be able to do is to withdraw in good order and engage with external partners to improve Afghanistan's future prospects

To Lose a War Jon Lee Anderson, 2015-08-12 From one of the great foreign correspondents of our time author of some of the most essential reporting from Afghanistan from before 9/11 to the return of the Taliban to power in 2021 the first full accounting of that entire era combining previously published dispatches and new reporting into a single epic tapestry Jon Lee Anderson first reported from Afghanistan in the late 1980s covering the US backed mujahideen's insurrection against the Soviet backed regime in Kabul Within days of the 9/11 attacks he was again on the ground as an early eyewitness to the new war launched by the US against the Taliban and their Al Qaeda allies His reportage from the first year of the war won a number of awards and was published in book form as The Lion's Grave Dispatches from Afghanistan At the time the American military had prevailed on the battlefield and the newfound peace seemed to offer a precious space for Afghan society to restore itself and to forge a democratic future But all was not well Osama bin Laden was still in hiding the Taliban were stealthily reorganizing for a comeback and the United States was about to turn its attention to Iraq To Lose a War collects Anderson s writing from Afghanistan over a near quarter century span Containing the stories from The Lion s Grave and all of those he published since as well as important writing appearing here for the first time the book offers a chronological account of a monumental tragedy as it unfolds The colossal waste missed signals and wishful thinking that characterized the twenty year arc of the US led war in Afghanistan have consecrated it as one of the greatest foreign policy failures of the modern era and a bellwether of a larger American imperial decline Fifty Years a Queen Katherine Hodges,1887 Historical and Contemporary Demographic and Population Issues in Africa and South Asia Kambidima Wotela,2025-07-09 In an era where understanding demographic dynamics is crucial for shaping effective public policy and improving societal well being this edited volume explores contemporary demographic challenges across Africa and South Asia Covering critical issues such as fertility variations nosocomial infections cancer incidence mortality analysis conflict dynamics and the politicization of demographic narratives the book offers perspectives that clarify the intricate interplay between demographics and societal trends Readers will discover how ethnic governance influences fertility outcomes the urgent need for effective and sustainable healthcare strategies in urban environments and the demographic factors fueling conflict and instability Additionally the volume emphasizes the importance of addressing health disparities and the role of public awareness in cancer prevention By equipping researchers policymakers and practitioners with a comprehensive understanding of these pressing issues this book serves as an essential resource for those aiming to navigate the complexities of demographic research and its implications for diverse populations Through its interdisciplinary approach and rich analysis this volume not only highlights the challenges faced by specific regions but also proposes informed interventions that can lead to tangible improvements in quality of life

Pakistan Affairs ,1988 Afghanistan Rising Faiz Ahmed,2017-11-06 Debunking conventional narratives of Afghanistan as a perennial war zone and the rule of law as a secular liberal monopoly Faiz Ahmed presents a vibrant account of the first Muslim majority country to gain independence codify its own laws and ratify a constitution after the fall of the Ottoman Empire Afghanistan Rising illustrates how turn of the twentieth century Kabul far from being a landlocked wilderness or remote frontier became a magnet for itinerant scholars and statesmen shuttling between Ottoman and British imperial domains Tracing the country s longstanding but often ignored scholarly and educational ties to Baghdad Damascus and Istanbul as well as greater Delhi and Lahore Ahmed explains how the court of Kabul attracted thinkers eager to craft a modern state within the interpretive traditions of Islamic law and ethics or shari a and international norms of legality From Turkish lawyers and Arab officers to Pashtun clerics and Indian bureaucrats this rich narrative focuses on encounters between divergent streams of modern Muslim thought and politics beginning with the Sublime Porte s first mission to Afghanistan in 1877 and concluding with the collapse of Ottoman rule after World War I By unearthing a lost history behind Afghanistan's founding national charter Ahmed shows how debates today on Islam governance and the rule of law have deep roots in a beleaguered land Based on archival research in six countries and as many languages Afghanistan Rising rediscovers a time when Kabul stood proudly as a center of constitutional politics Muslim cosmopolitanism and contested visions of reform in the greater Islamicate world
