The Bible in Motion Rhonda Burnette-Bletsch, 2016-09-12 This two part volume contains a comprehensive collection of original studies by well known scholars focusing on the Bible's wide ranging reception in world cinema. It is organized into sections examining the rich cinematic afterlives of selected characters from the Hebrew Bible and New Testament considering issues of biblical reception across a wide array of film genres ranging from noir to anime featuring directors from Lee Chang-dong to the Coen brothers whose body of work reveals an enduring fascination with biblical texts and motifs and offering topical essays on cinema's treatment of selected biblical themes e.g. lament apocalyptic particular interpretive lenses e.g. feminist interpretation queer theory and windows into biblical reception in a variety of world cinemas e.g. Indian Israeli and Third Cinema. This handbook is intended for scholars of the Bible religion and film as well as for a wider general audience.

Epic Films Gary Allen Smith, 2015-09-03 Epic films those concerned with monumental events and larger than life characters cover the period from the Creation to the A.D. 1200s and have been churned out by Hollywood and overseas studios since the dawn of filmmaking. Cecil B. DeMille a master of the genre hit upon the perfect mixture of sex splendor and the sacred to lure audiences to his epic productions. The 355 film entries include casts and credits plot synopsis and narratives on the making of the films. There are 190 photographs in this edition.

Morituri Te Salutant Jurgen W Schulze, 2003-01-22 Peter Scott an insurance investigator with his own agenda pursues a potentially fraud tainted claim. Stepping on the toes of a New York Mafia boss and becoming involved with former IRA procurers he leaves a trail of death behind him as his investigations progress. The chase takes Scott to Europe Africa and Hawaii and Scott has to learn that his success comes at a very high price.

Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2007 Roger Ebert, 2013-02-05 The most trusted film critic in America USA Today Roger Ebert actually likes movies. It's a refreshing trait in a critic and not as prevalent as you'd expect. Mick LaSalle San Francisco Chronicle America's favorite movie critic assesses the year's films from Brokeback Mountain to Wallace and Gromit: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit. Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2007 is perfect for film aficionados the world over. that once was Hamill has honed his nostalgia for a midcentury Brooklyn populated by immigrants cops and wiseguys Washington Post Tales depicting a bygone era when bloody street fights heartless murders and torrid love affairs were all part of everyday life New York Daily News Hamill's great love is New York City and his mission is to open a portal to the vanished world that lies beneath and alongside the modern trappings of today's New York He succeeds Irish America

Education and the Female Superhero Andrew L. Grunzke, 2019-12-17 Considering a variety of female superhero narratives including World War II era Wonder Woman comics the 1970s television programs The Secrets of Isis and The Bionic Woman and the more recent Buffy the Vampire Slayer Education and the Female Superhero Slayers Cyborgs Sorority Sisters and Schoolteachers argues that they share a vision of education as the path to female empowerment In his analysis Andrew L Grunzke examines female superheroes who are literally teachers or students exploring examples of female superheroes whose alter egos work as schoolteachers or attend school during the workday and fight evildoers when they are outside the classroom Taking a broader view of education Grunzke argues that the superheroine in popular media often sees and articulates her own role as being an educator In these narratives female superheroes often take it upon themselves to teach self defense tactics prevent victimization and encourage people especially female victims to pursue formal education Moreover Grunzke shows how superheroines tend to see their relationship with their adversaries as rehabilitative and educative trying to set them on the correct path rather than merely subdue or dominate them

Bright Boulevards, Bold Dreams Donald Bogle, 2009-02-19 In Bright Boulevards Bold Dreams Donald Bogle tells for the first time the story of a place both mythic and real Black Hollywood Spanning sixty years this deliciously entertaining history uncovers the audacious manner in which many blacks made a place for themselves in an industry that originally had no place for them Through interviews and the personal recollections of Hollywood luminaries Bogle pieces together a remarkable history that remains largely obscure to this day We discover that Black Hollywood was a place distinct from the studio system dominated Tinseltown a world unto itself with unique rules and social hierarchy It had its own talent scouts and media its own watering holes elegant hotels and fashionable nightspots and of course its own glamorous and brilliant personalities Along with famous actors including Bill Bojangles Robinson Hattie McDaniel whose home was among Hollywood's most exquisite and later the stunningly beautiful Lena Horne and the fabulously gifted Sammy Davis Jr we meet the likes of heartthrob James Edwards whose promising career was derailed by whispers of an affair with Lana Turner and the mysterious Madame Sul Te Wan who shared a close lifelong friendship with pioneering director D W Griffith But Bogle also looks at other members of the black community from the white stars black servants who had their own money and prestige to gossip columnists hairstylists and architects and at the world that grew up around them along Central Avenue the Harlem of the West In the tradition of Hortense Powdermaker's classic Hollywood The Dream Factory and Neal Gabler's An Empire of Their Own in Bright Boulevards Bold Dreams Donald Bogle re-creates a vanished world that left an indelible mark on Hollywood and on all of America Movie Time James Combs,2009-03-26 Movie Time is a study of temporal mythmaking in American popular movies The work is rooted in American pragmatic philosophy and contemporary traditions of inquiry in the social sciences and humanities It proceeds on the premise that social beings and social orders are interested in the mediation of time and attempt to make sense of their present world through the reconstruction of important pasts of interest in the present develop new presents with the help of popular expressions which define new situations and responses for a new time and foresee possible futures which impinge upon life in the here and now In particular the work focuses on the subsequent treatment of the American 1950 s in films set in that era beginning in the 1970 s and continuing with an effort to create a rough taxonomy of mythemes in such retrospective films and why it is that future times would find the Fifties to be so important that people wish to revisit it Too the mediation of time includes the development of a new present in this case the emergence of conservatism as a social force in the 1970 s and beyond The movies were an important form of expression in the dramatization of the conservative myth leading to the pervasion of conservative leaders and ideologies into the new century Finally the unrealized but imminent future of the country and world was increasingly on people s minds as both millennial hopes and fears and unanticipated threats began to emerge at century s end so movies which anticipated alternative futures appeared in response to that prospective interest It is hoped that this present inquiry will stimulate further work on the social relevance of popular expression and in particular the social mediation of time God's Secrets Revealed: As the War in Heaven Continues on Earth - PREPARE FOR THE FALL OF AMERICA Cynthia Anne Dahm,2010-06-21 Will America suffer the same fate as Atlantis Atlantis was God s first large province created after Lucifer was cast from heaven but not before the ultimate fallen angel renamed Satan rebelled causing untold chaos death and destruction in the universe Eventually the devil s hatred of God s creation law and order carried over into this world to such an extreme only God Himself could intervene It came in the form of a pole shift the great Cataclysm that sank Atlantis killing millions and sending the fallen angels or dark lights scattering But God knew history would repeat itself as our world is once again experiencing the devastating effects of when man doesn t learn from his mistakes as greed corruption and abuse of power relentlessly continues The turmoil on earth has always been a Spiritual War between the Forces of Good and Evil that began in the cosmos Earth was created as a schoolhouse to provide lessons for those who lost their physical bodies but not their souls in the great Universal Battle due to Satan s deception This battle will be permitted to play out according to Bible prophecy wherein ones will again be given the chance to choose whose side they re on Christ or the devil When global order deteriorates especially in America to the point of no return as is happening now God will need to directly intervene again just as He did before in the antediluvian era by bringing Judgment in the form of another pole shift Meanwhile Satan knowing his time is short is working overtime to take as many souls with him to eternal damnation doing so through earthly minions those who ve sold out and are doing his bidding The Mark of the Beast of Rev 13 is destined to become the devil s greatest tool to make this happen And it s just around the corner This book shares some of God s best kept secrets such as an elaborate account of the War in Heaven and how it affects everyone also the Levels Planet System why Earth was created and how it s actually an extension of God s mercy the truth of past lives benevolent human looking beings from other planets and living spacecraft the lost continent of Atlantis and how it parallels with America soul mates or the marriage made in heaven who guides and missioned beings are and much more But its greatest purpose is to warn and help people prepare for the future so all can make the right choice for God and live forever not only on a purified earth but also within the realms of our original homeland the place where everyone s from the universe The Christmas Kiss Kathy Coatney,2025-04-15

Fast-Talking Dames Maria DiBattista,2008-10-01 There is nothing like a dame proclaims the song from South Pacific Certainly there is nothing like the fast talking dame of screen comedies in the 1930s and 40s In this engaging book film scholar and movie buff Maria DiBattista celebrates the fast talking dame as an American original Coming of age during the Depression the dame a woman of lively wit and brash speech epitomized a new style of self reliant articulate womanhood Dames were quick on the uptake and hardly ever downbeat They seemed to know what to say and when to say it In their fast and breezy talk seemed to lie the secret of happiness but also the key to reality DiBattista offers vivid portraits of the grandest dames of the era including Katharine Hepburn Irene Dunne Rosalind Russell Barbara Stanwyck and others and discusses the great films that showcased their compelling way with words and with men With their snappy repartee and vivid colloquialisms these fast talkers were verbal muses at a time when Americans were reinventing both language and the political institutions of democratic culture As they taught their laconic male counterparts most notably those appealing but tongue tied American icons Gary Cooper Henry Fonda and James Stewart the power and pleasures of speech they also reimagined the relationship between the sexes In such films as Bringing Up Baby The Awful Truth and The Lady Eve the fast talking dame captivated moviegoers of her time For audiences today DiBattista observes the sassy heroine still has much to say
