

Leela's Friend

5 Marks Questions - Answers

1. How do Mr. And Mrs. Sivasanker react to Leela's missing chain? How does Leela herself react? What does this suggest about each of them?

Ans.: When Mrs. Sivasanker notices the gold chain to be missing from the neck of Leela, she can hardly control herself and slaps Leela for it. She immediately calls for Sidda and thinking him to have stolen the chain threatens him mentioning the police. On being informed of it Mr. Sivasanker at once lodges a complaint in the police station.

Though Mr. And Mrs. Sivasanker hold Sidda responsible for the thieving of the chain, Leela is least bothered about the missing of the chain. She wants Sidda by her side to lull her to sleep.

The missing of the gold chain shows the hidden persons in them. Mr. And Mrs. Sivasanker are very much materialistic. Human relation and understanding bears no meaning for them. On the other hand, for Leela it is far better than any materialistic wealth.

2. "No, he hasn't taken it!" -- Who said this? How far was the speaker right in assessing the character of the concerned person?

Ans.: The quoted sentence was said by Leela, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. And Mrs. Sivasanker.

Leela was actually too young to judge any person by the face. She was not accustomed with the ways of the norm-setters of the society. So, on first meeting, when Mr. And Mrs. Sivasanker considered him not to be worse as a servant than the others they had, Leela at once requested her parents not to send him away. She played with him and his company made her supremely happy. They developed an emotional relationship. With her childish simplicity Leela could see an honest man in Sidda, that others couldn't have. So, though Mr. And Mrs. Sivasanker took him for the thief of the gold chain, she didn't believe in it. Surprisingly, we see that Leela was right as the gold chain was found inside a tamarind pot in the kitchen.

3. "He looked at her mutely, like an animal." -- Who was 'he'? Why did he look at her mutely? Discuss briefly the bond of relationship between them?

Ans.: Here he is Sidda, the servant of the Sivasankers.

Sidda was taken before the Sivasankers to confess that he had stolen the chain. Sidda had not taken the chain, yet, he thought, Leela might believe him to be the thief. He had nothing to prove his innocence. He was helpless in the hand of law. So, he looked at her mutely.

Sidda had to do various chores in the Sivasankers' house from washing clothes, tending the garden, running errands and chopping the wood. Yet, he uttered any words of annoyance as Leela was with him all the time. They played in the garden, found pleasure following the moon and spending time with catalogues and illustrated books. At night, Sidda told her incomparable stories which lulled her to sleep. Thus, they built up a relation of trust between them. This strong faith made Leela protest against the injustice done to Sidda by taking him away to the police station.
