Leerboek Der Algemene Geschiedenis Deel I:

Echoing Events Tina van der Vlies, 2022-12-12 Echoing Events questions the perpetuation actualization and canonization of national narratives in English and Dutch history textbooks wide reaching media that tendentially inspire a sense of meaning memory and thus also identity The longitudinal study begins in the 1920s when the League of Nations launched several initiatives to reduce strong nationalistic visions in textbooks and ends in the new millennium with the revival of national narratives in both countries The analysis shows how and why textbook authors have narrated different histories which vary in terms of context epoch and place as echoing events by using recurring plots and the same combinations of historical analogies This innovative and original study thus investigates from a new angle the resistance of national narratives to change

Globalisation, Human Rights Education and Reforms Joseph Zajda, Sev Ozdowski, 2016-09-23 This book the seventeenth instalment in the 24 volume series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research explores the interrelationship between ideology the state and human rights education reforms setting it in a global context The book examines major human rights education reforms and policy issues in a global culture It focuses on the ambivalent and problematic relationship between the state globalisation and human rights education discourses Using a number of diverse paradigms ranging from critical theory to historical comparative research the authors examine the reasons for and the outcomes of human rights education reforms and policy The authors discuss discourses surrounding the major dimensions affecting the human rights education namely national identity democracy and ideology These dimensions are among the most critical and significant dimensions defining and contextualising the processes surrounding the nation building identity politics and human rights education globally With this as its focus the chapters represent hand picked scholarly research on major discourses in the field of human rights education reforms The book draws upon recent studies in the areas of globalisation equality and the role of the state in human rights education reforms Furthermore the perception of globalisation as dynamic and multi faceted processes clearly necessitates a multiple perspective approach in the study of human rights education This book provides that perspective commendably It also critiques current human rights education practices and policy reforms It illustrates the way shifts in the relationship between the state and human rights education policy In the book the authors who come from diverse backgrounds and regions attempt insightfully to provide a worldview of current developments in research concerning human rights education and citizenship education globally The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between nation state human rights education both locally and globally

Reproducing, Rethinking, Resisting National Narratives Ignacio Brescó de Luna, Floor van Alphen, 2022-01-01 In his now classic Voices of Collective Remembering James V Wertsch 2002 examines the extent to which certain narrative themes are embedded in the way the collective past is understood and national communities are imagined In this work Wertsch coined the term schematic narrative templates to refer to basic plots such as the triumph over alien forces or quest for freedom that are recurrently used setting a national theme for the past present and future Whereas specific narratives are about particular events dates settings and actors schematic narrative templates refer to more abstract structures grounded in the same basic plot from which multiple specific accounts of the past can be generated As dominant and naturalised narrative structures schematic narrative templates are typically used without being noticed and are thus extremely conservative impervious to evidence and resistant to change The concept of schematic narrative templates is much needed today especially considering the rise of nationalism and extreme right populism political movements that tend to tap into national narratives naturalised and accepted by large swathes of society The present volume comprises empirical and theoretical contributions to the concept of schematic narrative templates by scholars of different disciplines Historiography Psychology Education and Political Science and from the vantage point of different cultural and social practices of remembering viz school history teaching political discourses rituals museums the use of images maps etc in different countries The volume s main goal is to provide a transdisciplinary debate around the concept of schematic narrative templates focusing on how narratives change as well as perpetuate at times when nationalist discourses seem to be on the rise This book will be relevant to anyone interested in history history teaching nationalism collective memory and the wider social debate on how to critically reflect on the past

Secular Schooling in the Long Twentieth Century? Merethe Roos,Johannes Westberg,Henrik Edgren,2024-09-23 The twentieth century process of secularization does not mean that institutional church and Christian ideas were irrelevant for twentieth century societal projects such as the introduction of democracy the improvement of school and education the framing of national identities or in the establishment of welfare states On the contrary this publication is built on the presupposition that secularization runs parallel with the sacralization of the state It can be argued that Christianity has been decisive for how the modern European society evolved in the twentieth century e g concerning how Christian history and Christian values were a part of the new national and social imaginary where re enchantment and re sacralization of the state were central elements In this publication the aim is to highlight the role of Christianity in the twentieth and twentyfirst century welfare state modernization process with the focus on schooling and education A central perspective is the impact of cultural Protestantism during the twentieth century The publication is comparative and will investigate education in Norway Sweden and the Netherlands via chapters on curriculums textbooks politicians and political debates
