Legal Institutions D.W. Ruiter, 2001-11-30 Building on his contributions to institutional legal theory in Institutional Legal Facts of 1993 Law and Philosophy Library volume 18 the author presents a comprehensive theory of legal institutions To that end the initial theoretical approach which mainly concentrated on problems connected with legal powers and legal acts acts in law is widened to allow for the development of a theory of legal judgements capable of accounting not only for enacted but also unwritten law legal principles and customary law With the use of the concept of institutional legal facts the structure of legal institutions is analyzed in detail In addition to that a classification of legal institutions is provided Extensive attention is given to logical as well as doctrinal problems connected with a conception of legal validity as the mode of existence of legal conditions rather than as a value of legal norms similar to the truth of propositions The study results in an elaborate conceptual framework for institutional analysis of positive law In a final chapter the analytical potential of the framework is put to the test by applying it to the branch of public international law known as the law of treaties Readership Specialists in legal theory and lawyers interested in theoretical issues particularly in linguistic approaches and questions related to the institutional nature of law

A History of English Legal Institutions Albert Thomas Carter, 1906 The Birth of a Legal Institution Peter C. Hennigan, 2004 This work presents an analysis of the earliest legal treatises on the Islamic trust or waqf the Ah kam al Waaf of Hilal al Ray and the Ah kam al Awqaf of al Khassaf This work undertakes a textual analysis of the treatises Evolution of Law: Primitive and ancient legal institutions , 1915 Governance in Modern Society Oscar van Heffen, Walter J.M. Kickert, Jacques J.A. Thomassen, 2013-03-09 This book is the immediate result of the co operation of a great number of scholars in the Netherlands Institute of Government NIG NIG is an interuniversity research school As such it has a double task In addition to offering a Ph D program to students in Public Administration it also is a research institute in which a great number of scholars from seven Dutch universities participate and work on a common research program The chapters in this book are all products of the research program that started in 1995 This program had the ambition to explore the frontiers of the discipline in two respects First by studying a number of recent developments in society and their consequences for the functioning of government These consequences can be summarised as the development of a system of multi level and multi actor governance Second by contributing to the knowledge of institutions both by studying what factors are most important in the formation and change of institutions and by studying the effects of institutions on the behaviour of actors in different political and administrative settings Most contributions to this volume either have their origin in conferences organized by the NIG or were published as an NIG working paper We are grateful to Marcia Clifford and Connie Hoekstra who prepared the final version of the manuscript to Ian Priestnall who took care of the language editing and to an anonymous reviewer whose comments were gratefully used
